

The BATTALION

L. S. U. FRIDAY

Published Weekly by the Students' Association of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

VOL. XXII.

BRYAN, TEXAS, OCTOBER 16, 1923.

NUMBER 4.

DALLAS TRIP A CONTINUOUS ROUND OF JOY

Defeat of Sewanee was the Supreme Thrill. Dance at Oriental Much Enjoyed.

For two weeks preceding the A. and M.-Sewanee football game the sole thoughts of the Aggies were "On to Dallas and Victory." And Friday last at noon the corps saw the football team off on its way accompanied by two hundred students and that night the A. and M. special which left College at 11:30 carried at least 800 other cadets.

The special arrived in Dallas at 5:00 a. m., Saturday morning and greeted the town with the customary exhibition of boisterous enthusiasm and lusty voices. The morning, until 10:30 was spent in looking the city over and acclaiming to Dallas citizens that A. and M. could not lose and would not.

At 10:30 a. m. the cadets paraded the streets from the Jefferson hotel to the Oriental hotel.

The rest of the day was passed away rather quietly until 3:00 p. m. at the Fair Park Stadium—then, all the keyed up excitement of both Aggie and Sewanee supporters burst forth as the first whistle began a game which shall long be remembered.

The game was a success in every way possible. Even though it has been said that the score of 14-0 did not really show the relative comparative strength of the two teams, we can say that the Sewanee eleven was indeed a team worth playing. They displayed a wonderful fighting combination, but the gray matter of D. X. Bible's football brain had planned an attack and defense, which, carried out by the powerful Aggie eleven, was incapable of being out-thought, out-fought, nor out-played.

That night an A. and M. dance was given at the Oriental Hotel at which the members of both elevens were invited as guests.

(Continued on Page 2)

WORK STARTED ON MEMORIAL SHAFT AT A. & M.

Monument to A. & M. World War Heroes to be Located on Lot West of Guion Hall.

The tentative plans for a lasting tribute to the Texas Aggies who gave their lives in the World War were realized last fall when the Classes of 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926, voted unanimously to unite and finance the plan for a monument to our heroes.

The shaft is to be a solid block of Vermont granite weighing nine tons with dimensions nine feet by five feet by two and one-half feet, resting on a five by five foot concrete base. Across one corner is to be draped an American flag.

(Continued on Page 2)

AGGIE BAND WINS PRAISE IN FORT WORTH

Banqueted and Feted by Chamber of Commerce and Shown Many Courtesies.

Wearing the insignia of the Jubilee Boosters, and led by their peerless leader, George Fairleigh, the Aggie band once again firmly entrenched themselves in the hearts of the residents of the North Texas city by rendering superbly a superior brand of music.

From the minute the first strains of "Wildcat" fell upon the ears of the residents, which announced the arrival of "Our Band", the pride of the cadets, until the last note floated into the midnight air, the city was theirs. As one of the speakers remarked, "the town is yours, and you will not be held for anything except murder and arson."

Nothing was lacking in the way of (Continued on Page 2)

ESCORTS NAMED A. & M. DUCHESS AND HER MAID

Seniors Selected to Act as Escorts to A. & M. Duchess and Maids at the Cotton Palace.

S. C. Bartlett and F. S. McGee were chosen to act as escorts to A. and M.'s Duchess and her maid of honor to the court coronation of King Cotton at the Waco Cotton Palace in November. Miss Elaine Bizzell was recently named Duchess of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and will represent A. and M. at this supreme social function held annually at Waco. S. C. Bartlett, Captain of the Band, and Lieutenant in the Ross Vol-

(Continued on Page 2)

STAGE IS SET FOR BIG ANNUAL SHOW BY A. H. JUNIORS

Will be Featured by Many New and Novel Events and Stunts.

Hark! Stop! Look! Listen! Look what's here. The annual rodeo put on each year by the Juniors of the Animal Husbandry Department is only a few weeks away. The Rodeo is always one of the biggest events staged at A. and M. and receives the cooperation of the whole College and the population of Bryan.

O. H. Kimball of Alpine is the manager and ringmaster this year. He promises us one of the best and most exciting Rodeos that has ever been staged in this part of the country. The purpose of the Rodeo is to provide funds for the Senior A. H. team to go to the National Show and uphold the name of Aggieland. They (Continued on Page 2)

A. & M. LIVESTOCK ON EXHIBITION AT STATE FAIR

Sixteen Horses, Fourteen Steers Make Up the A. & M. Show Herd for State Fair of Texas.

The Department of Animal Husbandry entered 14 steers and 14 horses for the ribbons at the State Fair of Dallas. Along with the College livestock show went the side show attractions made up of the famous Texas Aggie mare mule and her offspring, a horse foal by Pat Murphy.

The showing of horses is composed of two breeds, eight Percherons and six Morgans. The outstanding individuals in the draft horse exhibit are Linees and Durham's Pavia. Linees, the famed four-year-old Percheron mare was grand champion at Fort Worth last spring and stood third in her class at the International Livestock Exposition last year. There is a possibility, however, that Dunham's Pavia, the two-year-old Percheron filly, will win over Linees. This filly is unusually large for her age, weighing now more than the four-year-old and showing considerable bloom and finish for her age. One of the best stallion foals ever exhibited at any fair will be shown this fall. He is the foal of Linees and an imported stallion.

The Morgan exhibit is somewhat smaller than in former years but is composed of superior individuals of the breed. Red Oak the undefeated stallion and the Black Rose the undefeated mare are unquestionably the outstanding animals of this exhibit.

Texburn, the two-year-old stallion of Bobby Burns, in type and quality easily excels his sire. This young stallion will receive many favorable comments from Fair visitors. Then Zella, filly foal and half sister of Texburn by Red Oak, is without question one of the most perfect specimens of the breed.

Aberdeen-Angus, Shorthorn and Hereford breeds, constitute the steer

1000 AGGIES AT SUNDAY SCHOOL --- SUNDAY!