

"Y" NOTES

"Y" Workers at Navasota.

About fifteen members of the Y Cabinet and others journeyed to Navasota Sunday night and rendered a religious program at a union service there. Mr. N. H. Abrams, President of the Cabinet made the introductory address telling something of the work of the Association at A. and M. Musical numbers were rendered by Fish Duncan and a male quartette consisting of Preston, McCluney, Winchester and Braselton. Mr. L. G. Jones followed with a splendid talk on the "Four Square Man." D. D. Steele and C. B. Potts told of the religious work at college, and the program was concluded by an interesting talk from Hsu on the customs, habits and needs of China.

Following the program the visitors were royally entertained by the Navasota girls and served delicious refreshments of coffee and sandwiches.

The "Y" hopes to make a number of these trips and help to extend its religious influence to much of the surrounding territory.

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet has selected the following men to serve as a Picture Show Committee: Ben Whitehouse, Sam Whitsett, Monte Montgomery, and Mr. Thomas Mayo. This committee will use their influence in helping to secure the very best possible pictures.

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet meeting was held Thursday evening at supper in the private Mess Hall. About twenty men were present and a cordial welcome was given the new members. Dr. Bizzell made a splendid talk in which he told of the possibilities of the Association, and its place in student life. He further stated that, "That Y. M. C. A. was the college functioning religiously, and that it was as much a part of the college as any of the other departments."

Music is being furnished by the "Y" for the Campus Girls Club twice a week at the noon hour.

Over 50,000 sheets of paper and 20,000 envelopes have been distributed thru the "Y" since the beginning of school.

The Social Service Committee of the "Y" requests those who have magazines for the hospital to leave them at the desk and they will be given to the confined students.

The "Y" is furnishing hundreds of jobs each week to worthy students. If you have any work to be done, phone the Y for quick and efficient service. Help us help the students.

The National Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement will be held in December. World questions will be discussed by world-renowned speakers. Let's have a strong Aggie delegation. See C. B. Potts for particulars.

Among the guests at the "Y" last week were: Mr. S. E. McGregor of Milano, E. Krenok of LaGrange, Mrs. H. B. Stone of Port Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hulon of Willis, J. Hutcherson of Houston, Mrs. J. R. Lewis of Thorndale, W. J. Ralph of Kirbyville, Mrs. J. D. McConaughey and Mrs. R. C. Brown of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Smith of San Antonio.

SOCIETY

Look Ahead to Houston.

An Aggie dance under Aggie auspices in a foreign town—that is the theme of our town crier now.

On the night of November 17, at 8:30 the Rice ballroom will be open to ye all. Mr. M. E. Dart, officiating, announces that the Aggieland Eight will play. The members of both teams will be the guests of the occasion.

Write for that old date now. Don't procrastinate, 'cause we want to synopate. Tell your best friend to tell his best friend. That's best! Let's show Houston that the Aggie spirit don't stop at the gate to the football field—coming out. Be there! So are you, ain't I?

A Reminder.

Don't forget that "day after the battle" corps dance at Sbisas' Hall next Saturday night. And please bring a date. The more, the merrier. Give an S. M. U. girl a chance to hear Sol Bartlett and his Aggieland orchestra play in their native habitat.

The dance will start promptly at 8:30; so be on hand then. We don't want to hear any griping when midnight comes and the music, perforce, must stop. Introduce your girl to an Aggieland dance, and we'll appreciate it. Don't leave this dance out of your life. Remember that the sin of omission is the greatest sin of all.
