AGGIES TROUNCE TIGERS!

HERE'S WHERE THE AGGIES PULLED OUT THE TIGER'S TAIL.

Aeroplane view of the Dixie Stadium and the A. and M.-Sewanee game. The picture was made between halves. Every reserved seat on the side was sold. Rain and cold weather kept down the sales at the gate Saturday and that explains why the ends of the field are unpopulated.

FIGHTING FARMERS RUN OVER LOUISIANA UNIVERSITY TEAM

Last Year the Aggies slumbered
With a team that was wholly new;
Now they've got the Mustangs numbered
As Grudge-Fight Number Two.

Although Dana Bible kept his eleven well under cover throughout the contest with the L. S. U. Tigers, they were still strong enough to pile up a 28 to 0 victory in a most impressive fashion. The Farmers did not flash their full strength as they were holding in for the S. M. U. game next week, but they did demonstrate that their well-oiled machine had not rusted since the Sewanee game. There was little thrill to the contest as the Louisianians were unable to gain through the stone wall line of the Aggies. Captain Johnson, Forgason and Du Bois made the trio that were impenetrable and that were flanked by the fighting tackles—R. O. Wilson and Dansby. Jack Evans and Puny Wilson played their usual stellar game, covering passes and punts like a carpet. Puny Wilson looked particularly good on the pass that Gill threw him for the Aggies' third touchdown.

The backfield tore off the same flashy gains that they have been demonstrating all season by finding huge holes in the line and then eluding the secondary defense by clever sidestep-

THE DOPE BUCKET

Baylor Bears, we thank you. Last year we defeated the Longhorns for you and gave you your clear title to the championship. This year you journeyed to Arkansas and downed the Razorbacks when they had you beaten on paper. We may not be the ones to reap the benefit of your victory—it may happen that you were paving your own way to the championship—but in behalf of the Texas members of the Southwestern Conference we thank you. It was a splendid exhibition of fighting heart.

The Longhorns are beginning their basketball practice for the coming year rather early. They have a chance to put out a great team this year in spite of their pessimistic reports. They have lost Peyton, Barret, Swenson, and Schuhart but they have regained Ponsford and they have Settergast, Curtis, Ragland and Robertson from last years team back again. They also have a wonderful possibility in Esquivel of El Paso, a freshman star of last year.

Found a slam at us in the S. M. U. newspaper (the Campus I think the name is) concerning the "line" of the cadets when they visited the S. M. U. girls up in Dallas. It says, "The Aggies wealth of buildings and their football prowess is said to have formed a large part of their conversation." That may be true but I doubt it. Anybody that lived in Pfeuffer or Austin or perhaps in the Sheiks don't boast of the buildings and I have yet to hear of an Aggie boast of his team. We love them and admire them but we don't boast of them. Ask those girls what the Aggies said.

Old Army, get on the line. We
