

need this game with S. M. U. and you are not taking this yell practice serious enough. That's right, not serious enough. The fellows that stand well up among the crowd give all they have got at yell practice and that's all we can ask of them but the men that are back in the crowd, especially around the edges of the throng, haven't got the old spirit. There are a bunch of empty heads out there that seem to think that yell practice is a place for them to scuffle and fight and they make so much noise that Monty can't be heard back there. That isn't the right spirit and the fellows that are doing it don't think. Won't you help me get them on the line? When they start their little show just knock sparks from one of them, won't you? That's the stuff, I knew you would.

Get the Mustangs next Friday. Get mean, gang, get mean! Show them we are sportsman and see if you can't arouse a little envy in their breasts.

FIGHTING FARMERS RUN OVER LOUISIANA TEAM

ping. Neely and Fay Wilson were the offensive stars of the game; Neely tore the line to shreds on the off-tackle plays and Fay bucked through the center of the line for huge gains. Gill came through and punted in a manner that was a revelation, getting off long high kicks that the ends could cover without difficulty. His passing was also parexcellence as usual.

The first touchdown came soon after the opening whistle. Neely and Fay Wilson carried the ball within scoring distance twice but both times the Tigers tightened and the ball was lost on downs. A poor punt gave the Aggies another chance and "Knick" sent the two running backs over a weak guard for good gains. With the ball on the 18-yard line Fay found a hole and ran over for the first score. Knick added the other point. In the second quarter, Neely got loose for three long gains and aided by Gill and Wilson put the ball in scoring distance. Fay Wilson then sucked in their right end and ran the remaining 8 yards for a touchdown. With clock-like regularity Knick added that other point.

In the third quarter the Aggies really broke loose. A poor kickoff of 15 yards gave them a start and Knick unleashed a passing attack that was invincible. Short passes carried the ball down the field and then Gill shot one to Puny for 35 yards and another score. This time Jim Forgason kicked goal. The last nail was driven in the Tiger's coffin when Neely started another march down the field by tearing through tackle like a long-delayed freight. After working it down to the 8 yard mark, he carried it over and Forgason made it a perfect day for the goal kickers.

The Tiger's showed they had the old fight by coming back in the last period and threatening by the aerial route. Short passes of the Sewanee type worked for small gains and accounted for nearly all of the 46 yards that the Tigers gained during the game. The game ended with the ball in the Aggies possession on the L. S. U. 2 yard line.
