

Those Florsheim Oxfords

FOR SPRING HAVE COME IN AND THEY ARE BEAUTIES.
MAY WE HAVE THE PLEASURE OF SHOWING YOU THESE UNUSUAL SHOES?

* SAY BO! DIDJA? *

Say Bo! Didja ever slip down
Behind the old barn, and gently
But firmly rope that three year Old steer, with the avowed

Intention of either riding
Him or giving him a darn good chance To ride you? And when you Goe the old boy tied up

Close to that post-oak Tree, didja fix a rope Surcingle securely about His circingle, and don

That pair of long shanked lock roweled
Spurs? And didja mount your steed
And cast off that post-oak anchor?
And did a battle royal take place,

And after a few minutes of mighty Bucking, bellowing, and other minor Accessories didja feel that Old surcingle give way, on the Mightiest upheaval of them all?

And didja sail away into space
Only to come down in a sitting Position with your legs folded under

And at right angles to those Long-shanked, lork-roweled Spurs??
Say Bo, didja?
I didn't neither.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT IMPROVING HOME

The Athletic Department has spent a large amount of money in the past few weeks in making their home more comfortable and in the next few weeks will expend another large sum in giving the football squad a better field to play on. Their offices have been remodeled and separate offices for each coach have been provided.

The C. E. Department generously furnished the room in which Mr.
Munson has been holding forth with his Hydraulics class and Mr. Sullivan turned it into several smaller rooms.

The improvement at Kyle Field has been needed for some time and the benefits that will be derived will more than offset the cost. Under the supervision of the Agricultural Engineering Department tile drains are being installed and by next season rain will not interfere to any marked extent with the conduct of the games. Mr. Snyder states that the plan embraces a well balanced system of drainage and after it has been installed the field can be drained in twenty-five minutes. Work will begin immediately and we will be given an opportunity to see how the drainage system works this Spring.

SOCIETY

Corps Dance.

For the benefit of the lame and halt, Social Secretary H. M. Tatum was host at the first dance of the leap year last Saturday night. We are even surprised and gratified that the admission took no leap.

"Bull" Johnson's suspenders and blue shirt were missed; but his formal natty attire and pleasing grin was the favorite of the night. It has been devoutly wished that "Petey" Wilson had been there to demonstrate the "flea-hop" alias "Powder-puff" dance.

The report is that one boy fell down.
Modesty restrains the editor from using his own name. "Discretion is the better part of valor."

The music was good? Of course!
The Aggieland played—Barney Dodd, featuring the vocal. A good spirit of enthusiasm prevailed and the dance was acclaimed a success.

Introducing a drawing card for the oncoming Barnyard dance it was announced that "Pewee" Faucett, "Flat-tonia" Berger, "Blo" Bowden and Charlie Regan have promised to be there so the girls can have a good time.
