

SAY BO! DIDJA?

Say Bo! Didja ever tire of Mediocrity, and yearn to ascend To the unscarred penicles of Fame? Did the lure of the Commonplace pall, and didja hear The clarion call, "Excelsior"? And didja so desire to join The ranks of those who really

Matter; the members of the campus Chewing Club? And all forgetful Of the days of C. E. Summer Practice, When once you took a chew, and

Kicked the transit over, didja Cut off a plug of thick or thin And charge that cavernous mug To full capacity; hoping thereby

To gain both fame and elegability? And as the molars rose and fell In regular and rhythmic crushing Motion, did the volume of the

Specimen increase, and did the Cheeks extend to the elastic Limit And did the pleasure pall And ere you had the time to effect

The export of that mighty cargo, Did reason abdicate, and did the Sun, moon and tars look on in Fiendish glee? And did that

Gyroscopic bean seek out the Bed, and there with one gigantic And equeous gurgle, seek kind Relief in heavy and unconscious

Stupor? And on awaking, didja Realize with deep regret that Another shot had missed its mark, And that you were doomed to Mediocrity?

Say Bo! Didja?

RESOLUTIONS OF THE SENIOR CLASS ON THE DEATH OF MR. J. S. DAWSON.

We, the members of the Senior Class do here submit the following resolutions on the death of Mr. J. S. Dawson, the father of our friend and classmate, S. B. Dawson.

Whereas, in His infinite wisdom it has seemed just that God call unto Him the father of our beloved classmate, S. B. Dawson;

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of the Junior Class extend their deepest sympathy and condolence to the family of S. B. Dawson.

Also, be it resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and a copy be furnished the Battalion, The Daily Bulletin, and the publication of his home city, Vega.

(Signed.)

- V. H. Montgomery, President.
- B. C. Davis, Vice-President.
- C. R. Euschenburg, Sec.-Treas.
- T. R. Strange, Historian.

"Y" NOTES

Among the visitors at the "Y" the last week are: Mrs. W. A. Warner, Claude, Texas; M. J. Pitcher, Mexia, Texas; J. S. Chubley, New York City; W. H. Agnew, Georgetown, Texas; Geo. O. McFarland, Houston Texas; W. N. Washington, Houston, Texas; R. L. Perdue, '22, Reagan, Texas; Frank Murrah, '29, Plano, Texas; Elizabeth Speer, Austin, Texas; Lawrence Wharton, Austin Texas; Dr. H. H. Sweets, Louisville, Ky.; Nikolai I. Koorbatow, Tashkent, Russia; Dr. E. C. Lendemon, New York; C. H. Smith, Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Much interest is being manifested in the coming Student Volunteer Convention at Austin. The South Texas Union will hold its annual meeting Jan. 25-27. Robt Wilder, founder of the movement, is to be the main speaker on the program. A. and M. is allowed about ten delegates besides the volunteers. This convention will be an echo of the Indianapolis convention and promises to be very inspirational. Students interested should get in touch with C. B. Potts, the "Y" Secretaries, or some member of the "Y" Cabinet for further information. Many will remember the splendid conference held at Southwestern University last year. Let's make the Aggie spirit supreme in every field.

Fifteen subscriptions to the Intercollegian were ordered by the "Y" Cabinet.

At a regular meeting of the "Y" Cabinet last Wednesday the members discussed the program of work for the second term. Further plans were made for a privilege card campaign. Plans are being made to stimulate further interest in rural church work.

While in Dallas Rev. Matthews ordered a new screen for the picture show. With the two new machines excellent shows are in store for the students. The best possible pictures will be secured.

RING TRUE.

Don't be what you ain't,
Jes' be what you is
If you is not what you am,
Then you am not what you is,
If you're just a little tadpole,
Don't try to be a frog;
If you're just a little tail,
Don't try to wag the dog.
You can always pass the plate,
If you can't exhort and preach
If you're just a little pebble,
Don't try to be the beach.
Don't be what you ain't,
Jes' be what you is.

REMEMBER UNCLE BUCK WHEN YOU EAT UNCLE BUCK'S CAFE.

Mail and Female.
For days I've waited for a letter from a certain girl. That was all that was needed to make me supremely happy, to raise my drooping spirits to the skies. Just one single letter! Every day I climbed four long flights of stairs to my room between classes just to see if it had not come at last. Every mail I hoped. And now there is a fat letter from her in the mail-slot in the door-unopened. You ask me why I mope about, why I don't rush to the door and seize it? Oh, most unkindest cut o' fall!—it is for my roommate!
