Second Game.

The second game was strikingly different. The spectators were at a loss to know whether the contest was basketball or football—the only seeming difference being that the court wasn't marked off and there was no headlinesman. Referee Ramp who will be remembered as the man who refereed the grid tilt with Baylor last fall, seemed to enjoy the contest and let it go its limit. Chambless, Bear forward, was forced out of the game in the first half because of personals.

Bell, playing center for the Wacoans, looped three baskets in the first half. Woodson got a field goal and annexed another point on a free throw. Chambless made one basket before he was put out of the game.

Darby hooked two free throws out of three tries, and Wilcox, substitute for Damon, made one free throw and one field goal. This ended the scoring for the first half—11 to 5.

Using their man for man defense again, Baylor held the Aggies to four points during the second half. Wilcox made three of these and Brient made one. A regular drag-out, was this second half. Darby received a blow on the ankle that forced him out—Damon coming back in to take his place. A minute or so later Duckett was struck on the head and, with a heavily taped ankle, Darby came back in to take over his position.

Washburn and Gill remained in the game from start to finish and gave all that they had, but with Baylor using such tactics, it was a hard matter to guard a man without being assessed a foul.

1ST BATTALION DEFEATS TROOPERS.

The Cavalry lost their standing in the thousand per cent column by virtue of their loss to the 1st Battalion. With the Cavalry getting their share of the breaks, the 1st would have had some trouble in ringing up this victory. This game will probably have quite a bit of bearing on the inter-battalion race as both of these teams were considered to be strong contenders for the championship.

The Infantrymen scored early when Pistole returned the kick-off eighty yards for a touchdown. It was a rather doubtful decision, as the referee blew his whistle thinking that the runner had been forced out of bounds.

The 1st put over another counter in the third period on Miller's long return of Rideout's punt and a series of line plays—Putnam carrying the ball over.

The Cavalry scored in the last quarter on a pass. Again there was a contested decision as the whistle blew before the play was completed.

Putnam, Beutel and Watts starred for the Infantrymen while Stevens was the best ground-gainer for the Cavalry.

ARTILLERY DEFEATS AVIATION

The Artillery won their first start against the Aviation Saturday afternoon by the slim margin of 6 to 0. The game was ragged and both teams lacked a running offense. The Artillery won by snatching passes out of the air for long gains and then playing a defensive game.

The Aviation marched down the field in the quarter on tackle smashes but they lacked the final push to put over a twily and the Artillery rallied and stopped the green's gains after the initial quarter. With but a minute to play, Bennett, star Artillery end, snatched two passes and Montgomery pushed the ovel over the last white mark. From then on there was little gaining although the Aviation passed at every opportunity. Twice the Artillery carried the ball with'n scoring distance but could not score again. Mast, Bennett, and Finchem starred for the victors while Storrie, Long and Grissom fought valliantly to stave off a defeat.

A miracular change has taken place in this institution as "Dutch" Hohn has begun to study. This change is probably due to a large picture which he received from Victoria during the past week.

'I was Said:

A coal saving hotel man who had been frequently called down for cold rooms, was called up at 2 a. m. by one of his guests as follows:
Guest—"Hello! HELLO! I want another room."
Proprietor—"Aw, go to bed. You'll be all right in the morning."
Guest—"HELLO! H-E-L-L-O!! You gotta change my room now."
Proprietor—"Aw, your room's all right. What's the matter with it?"
Guest—"For one thing—it's on FIRE!"
Well, that's that, and shows it's hard to satisfy every one. And yet that is just what we are here for—to give the greatest amount of satisfaction in service as well as in the particular article you buy. It keeps us constantly busy, but we can assure you that your satisfaction is what we assure by having only what we know to be worth while, and to give in service more than you pay for it.
