FROM OVER STATE

A varied program has been prepared. Such men as William Jennings Bryan, Hon. O. S. Lattimore, Rev. Arthur J. Moore, and W. B. Bizzell have been placed on the program with the idea of giving the boys the best that can be obtained in the way of inspirational addresses. There will also be conferences in which the delegates themselves will hold discussions of current problems. There will be several events for the entertainment of the delegates including a parade of the Cadet Corps, Banquet, and Movies.

The Conference will close Sunday night with a devotional service in charge of J. E. Lewis. Reports of different committees will be heard and an address by Mr. Moore will conclude the meeting.

milk from the herd can be easily and quickly handled. It is near the animals so that judging can be carried on without going from one end of the campus to the other. It is large and well lighted and ventilated.

Ice cream, butter, and several other milk products will be manufactured there and on a much larger scale than before. Mr. Grout will attempt to make it the model dairy of the south and a good example to all those interested in dairying. Under the management of Professor Grout this department will soon be one of the leading in this school and one of the best of its kind in the United States.

active in every student movement in this diocese.

Appropriation was made for a rector's salary at the annual diocese council held in Waco the past week after the needs of his work were presented by two students from the College. A committee was also appointed by Bishop Quin to make plans for the work which is to be undertaken by the rector.

The building committee expects to have the rectory and parish house completed by September and to have the rector on duty at that time.

The permanent committee appointed to conduct the business consists of Reverend S. Oylan Bird, pastor of the St. Andrew's Episcopal church of Bryan, ay Smith of San Antonio, and W. L. Edmondson, r.J, student members, Reverend Harris Masterson Autry House, Houston, executive secretary, Kenneth E. Palmer, student chairman of soliciting committee among students, E. B. La Roche, consulting architect, Mayor Tyler Haswell, treasurer of the fund and G. S. Parker representative of the members of the St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

A goal of $7,500 has been set for the solicitations of College and Bryan people. When this amount has been raised to show the backing that Bryan and College is giving this movement Reverend Bird expects to ask the diocese of the State of Texas to raise the sum of $50,000.

Reverend Bird will go to San Antonio next week to lay the matter before the West Texas Diocese, and from there to Dallas for the Dallas Diocese, closing his work at San Angelo before that of North Texas Diocese.

The lot purchased by Reverend Masterson is out of the Boyett tract. It was purchased at a price of $2500.

ending to the Washington meeting and the accompaniment by President Bizzell of the widow in the funeral trip back to South Carolina was a very great strain, which was evident in his features yesterday.

Explaining his interest in the Purnell bill yesterday President Bizzell stated that it would enlarge the scope of research activities of the agricultural experiment stations in the several states by providing for research in agricultural economic and sociological problems of rural welfare.

BERRY ET AL SWAMP
HORSEMEN.

The Third Battalion defeated the Cavalry 21 to 0. Three touchdowns and a safety. The features of the game was Berry's long end runs, accurate passing, and long return of punts.

The Infantry had things their way from the first scoring a touchdown in the first few minutes of play. Berry returned the kick-off forty yards and after a line play completed a pass for the first touchdown. After that it was a succession of long end runs, and completed passes that kept the Cavalry wondering what it was all about.

Townsend and Price scooped in passes time after time for long gains. Ochterbeck, Younger and Nichols in the line, and Simpson, Patman and Arnold in the backfield also deserve special mention, but it was Berry's long end runs that placed the Third in position to score. Berry handled the team well, and kept the Cavalry where they were harmless all during the game.

Stevens, Gelasinski and Rideout played the best game for the Cavalry getting in or around every play. The Cavalry showed lots of fight but they could not stop the march of the Infantrymen.
