

AGGIES TROUNCE HORNEF FROGS TO THE TUNE OF 28 TO 0

Berry is the Individual Star for the Aggies. Team Shows Lots of Fight.

It was a different team that Coach Bible sent on the field last Friday—a new team in practically every department, and one that fought with superhuman strength and a drive that surpassed any other appearance this season. With the aid of a brilliant, entirely new offense and the same impregnable defense, the Aggies were able to give Matty Bell's Horned Frogs from T. C. U., a severe drubbing, to the tune of four touchdowns and as many goals, and at the same time hold the visitors scoreless throughout the four quarters.

It was Bob Berry's day without a doubt. The little Aggie quarter, aided by the perfect interference that was given him, amassed a total of 263 yards against the T. C. U. eleven. Starring with him were Kishi, Dansby, and McGuire who performed in a spectacular manner although they did not gain as much as the Aggie field general, who gained on practically every attempt.

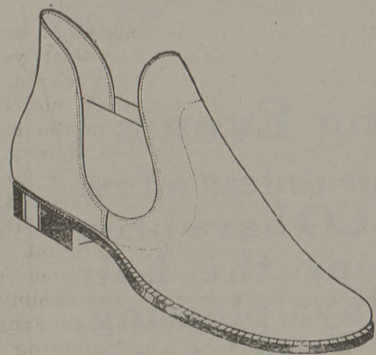

To name the stars in the Aggie line would necessitate the naming of practically every man who played in these positions. However, the work of Waugh, Hardman, Allison, and Ochterbeck was outstanding. Forgason, who relieved Ochterbeck after the latter was taken out with an injury, also played a splendid game.

For the visitors, there were two men whose work stood far above that of their teammates. These two were Clark and Honey, the former the T. C. U. quarter and the latter a halfback. Both of them were the mainstays of the defense that the Frogs were forced to lay down before the new style of attack launched by the Aggies.

The Farmers, fighting to avenge the defeat suffered a week before in Waco, began their scoring early in the first quarter. It continued into the third period when the last two were made by drives that could not be stopped. Wilson, Dansby, Waugh, and Kishi made the touchdowns and Dansby kicked the four goals.

Without a doubt, the exhibition that

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

Much Enthusiasm Shown by Student Body in Games of First Week.

The four leagues of the basketball division of the intramural program swung into action last week and incidentally began one of the largest projects ever launched within the limits of the college for the benefit of the student body. Playing on outdoor courts, combating strong winds and lots of blowing sand and dust, six teams landed in the thousand per cent column.

In League "A", Company "A" defeated Company "E" by a score of 8 to 4. Mayfield of the victors and Orme of the losers showed up well. Troop "A" by a 6 to 5 score won out over Troop "E" with Furneaux of "A" and Garvin of "E" doing the best work.

In League "B", Battery "A" beat the Casuals by a score of 16 to 12 with Meacham of the Artillerymen and Klaus of the Casuals starring. "A" Signal Corps won from "B" Troop with the final score 4 to 2.

In League "C", Troop "C" defeated Battery "B" 4 to 2. Baggett of the losers showed up well.

In League "D", Troop "D" piled up a one-sided score of 16 to 0 over Battery "C".
