

SAY BO, DIDJA!

Say bo,
 Didja passed thru
 The THWARTED THROES
 Og THREE long years
 Of MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
 And emerged from
 Their OCTOPUSION GRIP
 A finished product—
 A TECHNICAL, INTELLECTUAL GIANT?
 Were you LEARNED
 In THERMODYNAMICS
 REFRIGERATION, HY DRAULICS
 and COMPLEX LARSONOLOGY?
 Didja gracefully retire
 To your H. E. PRACTICE CLASS
 To repose in the ARMS or MORPHEUS?
 Did time speed by,
 And in the wee small hours
 Were YOU rudely awakened
 By the CLAMOROUS CLANGS
 Of your BIG BEN ALARM
 Sounding Forth?
 Did YOU cut it off
 And resume your repose.
 For SIX COSECUTIVE TIMES
 Did the alarm clock
 Ring loudly and each time
 Did you SEEMINGLY
 Cut-off the alarm?
 And was your highly
 SKILLED TECHNICAL BRAIN
 PUZZLED ith this
 PREPONDEROUS, ENGINEERING
 PHENOMENA?
 Finally didja RUMMIT
 An UNSKILLED CRUDE STUDEN?
 Of the LOWLY AGRICULTURE
 GLANCE at the clock and exclaim
 "The ALARM is set for REPEATING
 YOU have been MERELY
 TWISTING THE MINUTE HAND."
 Didja realize that YOU
 Didn't even know how
 To cut off an alarm clock
 Didja WEEP and TEAR YOUR
 HAIR and EAT YOUR SLIDE-
 RULES and THREE SETS OF
 STEAM-TABLES
 In your MENTAL AGONY
 Didja decide to change courses
 And take a CRIP such as
 RAILROAD ENGINEERING
 Say bo; didja
 SMOKY MOCO GOSS
 THE BATTLEING ESKIMO DID!

Mother may I go out to meet
 And vamp some joyride popper?
 Mais oui, ma cherie, toute de suite
 Return at dawn, as proper.

VARIED ASSORTMENT OF
 Y. M. C. A. LAST WEEK

An exhibit of high class pictures and frames was open to the public in the Y. M. C. A. Chapel last Saturday, Sunday and Monday. H. H. Allen, representing G. H. Pitman & Bro. wholesale dealers of Dallas, had charge of this exhibit. This company was persuaded to give an exhibit at College Station through the efforts of W. H. Matthews, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

This company deals in wholesale only, and due to the Y. M. C. A. students and outsiders who desired to purchase high class pictures at reduced rates were given an opportunity to do so. The exhibit included popular art pictures and fancy frames, with a special selection of cabinet frames; any of these could be bought as ideal Christmas gifts or for private use.

Two hundred and fifty orders were placed during the time the pictures were on exhibition. Many pictures were bought for the purpose of decorating the Senior Club Room and other parts of the Y. M. C. A. Purchases, for this purpose, were made by President and Mrs. Bizzell, Secretary and Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Taubenhau, F. L. Thomas, and many others, including P. R. McNeill representing the Senior Club.

Mr. Allen announces wonderful results in exhibiting the pictures—not only in sales, but in the interest taken by the student body. The students made purchases of especially high class pictures, showing an exceptional taste for quality in their selections. "As an example," Mr. Allen said, "there were thirty-three orders placed for Maxfield Parish's 'Day-break.'"

A semi-annual display, under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A. has been planned. Mr. Allen says that the next exhibit will receive more preparation and contain a much larger variety of pictures. This second annual exhibit will be made next spring.

Mr. Matthews will receive all subsequent orders from the company at the same reduced rates. Anyone desiring to turn in an order should do so at the desk of the Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. will receive a percentage in pictures of all orders and these pictures will be placed among the masterpieces bought for the purpose of decorating this institution. The desire to make a real restful place out of the Y. M. C. A. with this form of charm, was the purpose of bringing about the exhibit.

Chattum: "Sorry, we have no size twelve boots. Here are some large tens."

Colglazier: "Say, who do you think I am, Cinderella?"
