

ELABORATE PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING HOP COMPLETED

Football Men to be Honor Guests at Most Colorful Affair of Fall Season.

The plans for the annual Thanksgiving Hop have been completed and all is in readiness for the flood of local and important talent that is expected to grace the polished floor of Sbis next Friday and Saturday nights. Jack Gardner and his congregation are waiting to enchant the dancers with their syncopated strains; the floor is being prepared in the usual way that is said to have originated at Aggie land; all the various details, such as the midnight lunch, have been attended to. Not satisfied with near perfection, Social Secretary Harry Duckett, is tearing his well arranged locks in a frantic effort to outdo all previous Thanksgiving Hops in point of brilliance and gaiety. Louie Miller, crutches and all, will lead the grand march. The valiant Aggie leader has been heard to say that nothing short of death will prevent him from being the "life of the party."

The members of the committee in charge of the Hop are "Dime" Dealy, L. Dodson, "Vic" LeMay, "Zoo" Park, Cox, A. I. Richardson, and Harry Duckett. The zeal shown by the individuals of this group in planning and arranging this dance would bring a smile of approval from the sternest member of the faculty.

One item is causing the committee no end of worry and gray hairs—the task of prying that elusive fifty cents from the cadets. It would seem that collecting the tax from the students would be the easiest part of staging the Hop, for the small sum wanted entails such an insignificant sacrifice on the part of the donor as compared with the ones made by the members of the football team. Even if the contribution asked for should be numbered in dollars instead of cents, the cadets should be glad of the opportunity of repaying, in some small measure, the team for the glory and honor it has brought to A. and M.

The first dance will begin at nine o'clock Friday night and will continue until twelve. After the intermission, dancing will be resumed and will last until two-thirty. The second dance will start at nine Saturday and will continue until twelve.

REMEMBER MILLER—

Matern: All film stars wear filmy dresses, don't they?

Dodson: Yeh, but all girls that wear filmy dresses are not film stars.

GRADUATE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AND OUTLINES PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR

The graduate students at A. and M. recently organized and formed the GRADUATE CLUB. The members include both graduates of A. and M. and of other institutions who are taking post-graduate work at this college.

A meeting was held on November 13, and a constitution and by-laws were adopted. E. V. Spence was elected president of the club and N. W. Jones, vice-president. It was decided to have two meetings a month—one business and the other social. The meetings are to be held in the Y. M. C. A.

The club was organized to foster a closer association between the men who have enrolled in the graduate school and to promote a friendlier feeling and interest among the students. It is hoped that the club will be a permanent institution and that the social meetings of the club will help to bring the various men closer together.
