

SHORT XCHANGES

A Prince Albert sheik is one that doesn't bite the tongue.

It is easier to smile than to frown, because only thirteen muscles are used in smiling while sixty-three are required in frowning.

The Harvard Freshman Discussion Club voted overwhelmingly at a recent meeting that hazing would be a good thing for the rodent population of Harvard. A dissenting minority held that there was danger of serious physical injury.

Gladys—He's so romantic. Whenever he speaks to me he starts: "Fair lady."

Edward—Oh, that's force of habit. He used to be a street car conductor.

New Texas' School

To Enroll Thousand. Between five hundred and one thousand students are expected to enroll in Texas "Tech" next year, according to Dr. P. W. Horn, president of the new Texas School.

Dr. Horn stated that many necessities were not provided for in the appropriation of $1,000,000 which was made for the establishment of the school. Among the things that were overlooked are, sidewalks, sewerage system, water system and a power plant.

The faculty for the school will be elected next March and students will be accepted only as freshmen and sophomores during the first year.

T. H. Shelby, head of the extension department of the State University, is being considered for dean of the school.

Dr. Horn visited Baylor University before leaving for Dallas Thursday afternoon.

Cheer leader (to girl's cheering section)—"Come on girls, let's go. Show 'em you're orange and blue supporters.—Miami Student.

Dean Everett W. Lord, of the Boston University College of Business Administration, says the average college bred man earns $72,000 more by the time he has reach the age of sixty, than the average man with just a high school education.

The cross-word puzzle wave has swept across faculty and students at Princeton, according to press accounts. Professor Warner Fite has offered a prize to the student who can devise a puzzle capable of two separate solutions. Such a problem, he says, would possess great psychological value.

Professor Robert K. Root, of the English Department, has announced his willingness to adopt the puzzle as part of the term work in some of his courses, provided someone can be found to construct puzzles sufficiently difficult for the test at the end of the term.

Women have been barred from the regular cheering section at Cornell University. The reasons, given for this movement are that feminine voices do not contribute to the volume desired and that they detract from the masculinity desired from the cheering section.

SAY BO, DIDJA!

Say Bo,
Did'ja BLOW
Into HOUSTON
From the WILDS
Of COLLEGE STATION?
Were you TOGGED
In FASHION'S latest DECREE,
With a powder-blue suit
Of FORTY-EIGHT inch BOTTOMS?
Could you scarcely see
Because of the BEST CURVES
Of your hat trim?
Did happiness reign supreme
In your heart because
You knew ALL EYES were
Centered on your thoroughly
COLLEGIATE APPEARANCE.
As you retired at leisure
In your MAGNIFICENT
HOTEL SUITE
Did the phone ring
And did you accept
An invitation TO TEA
With one of the citie's
FAIR DEBUTANTES?
Did you go straightforward
To the damsel's domicile
Sure of yourself in each
MINUTE DETAIL?
But alas! did you find
Upon being introduced
That you were in the presence
Of Two French Counts?
Did'ja realize, with terror
That you had NOT STUDIED
That particular CHAPTER
Of THE BOOK OF ETIQUETTE
Which deals with FOREIGN NOBILITY?
Instead of feeling BLASE
Did'ja feel that you
Should probably BRAY!
Say Bo, did'ja?
"DIRTY" MULLER DID!!!

PISTOL RANGE IMPROVED BY ERECTION OF NEW RANGE-HOUSE

Those students who have gone to the 1000-inch range since their return to college after holidays have seen the newly-constructed range-house. This new house is a wood frame with galvanized iron covering. It was built to accommodate the targets and accessories needed in the work on the pistol and machine gun ranges. The old shack that was formerly used to store the things required on the range will probably not be torn down at present but will serve for extra storing space should it be needed.
