 * SAY BO, DIDJA! *
 * *****
 Say Bo,
 Did'ja show SAINTED TENDEN-CIES from earliest childhood?
 When YOU and YOUR BROTHER
 Were sick with CHILLS, Did'ja let him take
 BOTH DOSES OF CASTOR OIL
 Giving him a DOUBLE CHANCE
 Of quick recovery?
 In the cold bleak winter-time
 Did'ja wade far out into the lake
 And build SMALL RAFTS
 So that the LITTLE DUCKS
 Would have suitable places
 To land without WETTING THEIR FEET. As you reached the tender age of Adolescence
 Didja join the BOY SCOUTS
 And pledge yourself to
 "DO A GOOD TURN DAILY"
 Even if it were merely
 To reach out, cut off the ALARM
 CLOCK and turn over in bed?
 Did'ja play THREE-EIGHTS BACK
 On the high school FOOTBALL TEAM playing in BETWEEN the QUARTER-BACK and the HALF-BACK?
 Always ready to help either
 In case of dire necessity;
 Didja become a seni r
 In the ANESTHETIC and
 MORPHEOUS COLLEGE and coul'ja
 Attribute all your great success
 To thoughtfulness of others?
 Did you perceive a DRASTIC THING—that many were looking
 THIN
 And thoroughly emaciated
 Didja jump into the breach
 With characteristic thoughtfulness
 By carrying an AUTO PUMP
 With which to PUMP UP
 FLAT GIRLS!!
 Say Bo, did'ja?
 "Cy" EDWARDS DID!!

Sayings of the Great.

Plutvh—I am sorry that I have no more lives to give for my country.
 Samson—I'm strong for you, kid.
 Jonah—You can't keep a good man
 down.
 Cleopatra—You're an easy Mark Anthony.
 David—The bigger they are the
 harder they fall.
 Helen of Troy—So, this is Paris.
 Columbus—I don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way.
 Nero—Keep the home fires burning.
 Solomon—I love the ladies.
 Noah—It floats.
 Methuselah—The first hundred years are the hardest.
 Queen Elizabeth to Sir Walter Raleigh—Keep your shirt on.

A fool there was and he studied late,
 Even as you and I,
 And all he did was procrastinate,
 Even as you and I.
 He left his work to meet its fate,
 Until Exams made him hesitate,
 The highest he got was 68,
 Even as you and I.
 A fool there was and he studied late.
 Maybe as you, not I;
 He'd never loaf or dissipate,
 Maybe as you, not I;
 His Prof he tried to imitate,
 Alibis he'd never relate,
 The lowest he got was 98.
 It might have been you, not I.

—Ex.

Senior: "Gosh, you are dumb, why don't you get an encyclopedia?"
 Fresh: "Cause the pedals hurt my feet."

"In Terms of the Colossal"

THE co-ordination of commercial strength, architectural vision and engineering skill which created this titanic quadruple office building represents the motive and creative force which has turned the eyes of the world toward this type of American architecture.

This, the largest office building in the world, possesses fundamentally magnificent largeness in its conception, and a clean-cut directness in its execution which place it among the most significant of American buildings.

With such existing structural achievements no architectural future is impossible, no project too vast or too complex to come readily to our imagination.

Certainly modern invention—modern engineering skill and organization, will prove more than equal to the demands of the architecture of the future.
