

uated from A. and M. in 1888 as a C. E., then finished in law at the University of Texas, Judge Wurzbach is interested in farming and has a large herd of registered Jerseys. His son, will graduate in Dairy Husbandry at A. and M. in June.

H. C. Schumacher finished at A. and M. as an honor graduate in C. E. in 1892. He now is president of the Schumacher Company, wholesalers, with stores in Houston, Beaumont, Eagle Lake, La Grange, Navasota, Smithville, Robstown, and Victoria. He is a director in several banks and other concerns throughout the state. W. C. Boyett has long been a resident of College Station, and his knowledge of the college should make him well-acquainted with the needs of A. and M.

At the meeting Friday F. M. Law of Houston, was elected president of the Board to succeed L. J. Hart, Judge Byrd E. White of Lancaster was made vice-president, and S. G. Bailey, secretary to President W. B. Bizzell, was reelected secretary of the Board. The meeting Friday was a reorganization meeting. Besides the three new members and the officers elected the following members of the Board were present: Walter G. Lacy of Waco, P. L. Downs, Jr., of Temple, and Mrs. J. C. George of Brownwood.

Friday afternoon the Board witnessed a review of the cadet corps, and that night met the student body in the Assembly Hall. At the evening session of the Board matters pertaining to both A. and M. and its branches were discussed.

A society has been formed at McGill University for the suppression of cross-word puzzles, because they are such monopolizers of time.

BAND WILL AGAIN BE AT FT. WORTH FAT STOCK SHOW

business firms and popular and more frequented spots in the city. The Band is scheduled to play at Texas Women's College one night, and at Central High School, Polytechnic High School, and N. T. A. C. on successive mornings.

For the last three years, the A. and M. Band has been a popular attraction at the spectacular Stock Show. The music has thrilled many an audience with its quick, precise, martial time, characteristic of the College Band. Regular practice, efficient leadership, and unusual interest in the approaching trip should make this year the most successful for the A. and M. Band at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show.
