A. and M. opened its doors to its students for the first time on October 4, 1876.

***

The value of military equipment of the College is considerably over $300,000.

***

The first students' publication at A. and M. was issued in December 1878 and was known as The Texas Collegian. That this name was changed in 1889 and that the first issue of The Battalion appeared in 1893, edited by F. M. Law who is now president of the Board of Directors.

The self-made man stalked into the office of a great financier with whom he had an appointment.

"I don't suppose you remember me," he began, "but twenty years ago, when I was a poor messenger-boy, you gave me a message to carry—"

"Yes, yes!" cried the financier. "where's the answer?"—Punch

CRANE BEAUTY IN THE OPEN; CRANE QUALITY IN ALL HIDDEN FITTINGS

For many home-makers, the clear white of porcelain or enamel fixtures is the essential seal of cleanliness in bathrooms.

It is one of a wide variety of Crane fixtures for the bathroom, kitchen and laundry sold by contractors everywhere at prices within reach of all.

To such the Crane Tarnia bath will appeal instantly. Of cream white enamel on iron, it is set here in the same spotless vitrolite as the walls. It is durable, sanitary, economical.

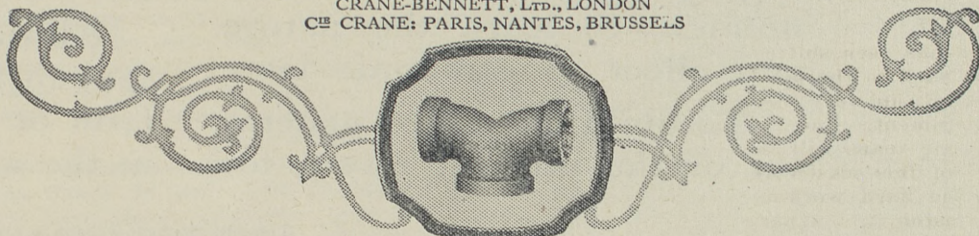

In the industrial field, Crane service duplicates on a larger scale in steam, oil, gas and water installations, the Crane standards of comprehensive lines and dependable quality.

THE SONG OF THE ENGINEER

I sing a song of hardship, of light-in' battles rough,
 Of glorious accomplishment—not glorious enough,
 Of pleasures, too hilarious, at which the righteous smirk;
 But, I say, we're the Engineers, that's in our line of work.
 I sing a song of hardship beyond "white collared" ken
 Of battling with the wildernes, pitting the strength of men
 Against grim Nature's armaments
 And yet, we cannot shirk,
 For, I say, we're the Engineers, that's in our line of work.
 I say that we accomplish, but never quite enough.
 We gash great scars o'er mountain sides, we crash on thru the bluff.
 We penetrate your ghastly swamps where deadly fensers lurk,

For we're the Engineers, you know, that's in our line of work.
 I've sung a song of hardship, of work and joy and strife.
 I'll tell you, now, the thing to which we dedicate our life.
 Not for ourselves we do the job and bear the loads that irk;
 Not for ourselves do we Engineers strive in our line of work.
 Service is the sacred trust for which we give our lives.
 For generations yet unborn we sweat, and curse, and strive.
 We build for all posterity. Our trust we will not shirk.
 For we're the Engineers—Service our line of work. W. S.

Why worry over the theory of evolution as advanced by some? After all it is the flea, not the ape that makes the closest approach to man.

Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together.
