CALDWELL'S JEWELRY STORE TO GIVE GOLD WATCH TO BEST DRILLED MAN IN CORPS

Along with commencement time come final reviews, exhibitions, and competition drills. The competition drills which are entered by every member of the cadet corps for the selection of the best drilled man in each organization are an annual custom. This year the competition is to be made keener by the offer made by Caldwell's Jewelry Store of Bryan, of a handsome gold watch to the best drilled cadet of the corps. In this way the final winner will have the pretty medal and watch as a reward.

The selection of the best drilled man will soon be made. Nine medals will be awarded in the Infantry companies, five to the Cavalry troops, three to the Artillery batteries, two to the Air Service, and two to the Signal Corps companies. The winners of these medals will be eligible to compete for the gold watch. The members of the A. and M. Band, of course, drill with the companies to which they have been assigned. Army officers will conduct the eliminations.

Let us be thankful for the fools. But for them the rest of us could not succeed.—Mark Twain.

The apple that rocked the earth

“I wonder why?”

In Isaac Newton's mind that question clamored for an answer. Many men had seen apples fall, but this man with the question mark mind found out why they fall—and his answer has helped us to understand the workings of a universe.

Would that we all could get a bite of that apple if it would inspire us too with the “I wonder why” attitude!

Intellectual curiosity is a great and moving force. It mobilizes reluctant facts. It is the stern drill-master which whips into shape that most invincible of armies—sure knowledge.

Curiosity, with the will to sweat out the answer, is the greatest asset you can acquire in your college course. This attribute is needed by industry today more than ever before.

We exaggerate misfortune and happiness alike. We are never either so wretched or so happy as we say we are.—Balzac.
