in advance, who will be on the Aggie eleven in 1927. No man ever came to Aggieland with a place practically cinched on any squad. When a man gets so good that he believes he is good, he had better try to improve himself. Stay in there and hit 'em hard Fish—we will need you all. 26-0

Old army-let these "dope" addicts predict any score that will suit the occasion; deep down in our heart we all want to win—we've got a hard "1000 wile walk" that goes up hill this year. Let's fight hard and fight clean with the team. "For when the one Great Scorer comes to write against your name. He writes not that you have won or lost but how you played the game." Play hard and clean-and "There shall be no re-grets."

JESS HAWLEY TELLS FOOTBALL SECRETS

more important game. Toward the end of the last half, however, the score was a nothing-to-nothing tie, and the ball was in our possession in the middle of the field.

"Leavett begged to be sent in. He was. With him the team found just one weak spot in the opponent's line -just one. Again and again Leavitt plunged through that spot. Hurt, tired, and battered, he wouldn't quit. Every time he hit he gained from three to four yards; never more; never less. With tears in his eyes, but with joy and tremendous courage in his heart, he fought on until he had smashed his way across the goal line -winning the game for Dartmouth."

No football coach in the country is being more closely watched this fall than Jess Hawley of Dartmouth. Every follower of the sport is wondering whether he will repeat the remarkable record of last year, when the Green eleven won every game played. Hawley in revealing the secret of his success, presents one of the most interesting expositions ever published.

THE BATTALION

Pick a Good One

"Rufus," said the wise old senior to the giddy young frosh, "I see you being rushed around a lot. Watch your step and take your time. Pick a good one!"

That's smart "erackin'," whether you're picking a "bunch" or a fountain pen. You want both of them to live with you a long, long time. So it's best to step up to the Wahl Pen counter right now and choose yourself a fine Wahl Pen.

Pick the style you like (Wahls come thin and Wahls come fat); the material you want (Wahls come in solid gold, sterling silver, gold-filled and silver-filled, red, black or mottled rubber); the point that suits your hand—stiff or flexible, fine, medium, stub, oblique or Wahl Standard Signature.

Pick any Wahl Pen, and you get not only the smoothest, best-looking writing tool that ever graced your hand, but also one that from cap to nib is practically indestructible. You could carry a Wahl in your hip pocket through three initiations, and still have the best fountain pen in the world.

$3 to $7 for the silver or rubber $6 and Northward for the gold
