

Dad, too, buys this pen for economy's sake

The cheap and uncertain pen costs much more in the long run. The Lifetime* is the pen of no repair costs. So accurately is it built, and so un-faillingly does it perform, that we unhesitatingly guarantee it without reservations whatsoever. And because it is also a beautiful pen, built of enduring green Radite, it is a pride of student-dom—and a coveted possession always. Spot it by the dot—at better dealers everywhere.

Price, in green or black, $8.75. Student's special, $7.50. Pencil, $4.25
Blue Label Leads—fifteen cents
Scrip is the best ink for all fountain pens forward line showed up well and it would be hard to pick outstanding stars. Captain Dieterich, Watts, Deffebach and Petty proved terrors both on offense and defense to the Tiger line, while the other linemen stirred up more than enough trouble for the opposition. Cochran, Schley and Whittaker showed up best for the Tigers.

There were about forty A. and M. cadets in the stands and these were supplemented by a large number of ex-students from Dallas and vicinity. Benny Gharrity, yell leader of '22, took charge and it was only occasionally that the Trinity co-eds could be heard above the uproar.
