AGGIES CLASH WITH SEWANEE TIGERS SATURDAY

The Aggie Gang.

* DROP KICKS *

Remember gang, lest we forget, that the reason for that fly T. C. U. put in the ointment last year was overconfidence. Fight every game as it comes and look upon every opponent as a most worthy foe, because they are that and more. The season for easy games is over and for everything we get from now on out we have to fight and fight hard. That long THOUSAND MILE WALK is two games gone, and the hill is getting steeper all the time.

Due to the Conference ruling that allows them to count certain games as conference games, Arkansas University is now leading the list with 1000 per cent as a result of their 21-6 victory over Mississippi University last Saturday. "Ole Miss" was undoubtedly a worthy foe, but we hardly think it fair to the other schools that have to battle the strongest teams in the Conference that the Porkers should have such an easy time. If they have to count such games as such, why don't they count the Oklahoma University game, or some of the other Missouri Valley teams they play? Nevertheless the Razorbacks are now at the top of the list in the Southwestern Conference standing.

In the Sunday, Oct. 3, issue of the Dallas News, Mr. Victor Davis laments the fact that S. M. U. has prob-

AGGIE GOLFERS ORGANIZE.

Coach D. X. Bible addressed the Golf Club Friday night and outlined the plans for the year. Since he would be busy until after basketball season, he has arranged for Prof. Nowell, from the Bryan Country Club, to give free coaching on the campus. Tuesday evenings after drill is the tentatively accepted time. A number of tournaments have been planned, as fish team as well as a varsity team will be chosen. Letters and numerals will be given to those who show ability.

Beer consumption in Germany, says a press report, has been cut from 102 liters for every man, woman and child, to 75 liters. High prices are the cause, says the government. Cocoa and chocolate are in greater demand.

AGGIES WIN OVER SOUTH-WESTERN 35-0

Pirate Ship Goes Aground on Kyle Field.

Unleashing a powerful running and passing game the Texas Aggies reeled off gain after gain through the highly touted Southwestern Pirates on Kyle Field last Saturday afternoon for a decisive 35-0 victory. It was only by fine kicking by Blackburn and stubborn defensive work by Hodges and Lehmborg that the Pirates kept the score down to what it was. Young

SEWANEE COMES FOR VENGEANCE

Hailed as the Greatest Intersectional Classic of the Season. An Aerial Battle to be Main Feature.

For the fourth consecutive time the University of the South will invade Texas in an attempt to draw a win from the Texas Aggies. Three times before they have failed; in the premier attempt they were decisively defeated and outplayed by a 13 to 0 score, the second attempt resulted in a 7 to 0 decision for the ever fighting Texas Aggies, the third attempt was very near a fruitful one. Sewanee with a master team, master of all tricks—a good line, a shifty and fast backfield, was sent back to their lair high in the Tennessee mountains, with a 6 to 6 score torn from the very heart and soul of the Texas Aggies.

Sewanee, in their fourth attempt to leave Texas soil with a victory over the Farmers, will bring with them, in the form of a football team, a do or die spirit. Ever since football season has been inaugurated the one thing that has been instilled and drilled into their minds, they have been living it, "Beat the Farmers." This has been their slogan and with such a determination as they have developed and the "never say die" spirit of the Aggies—promises to make the intersectional tilt the most hotly contested and the most interesting of the current season. Football fans and critics the country over know
