

WHEN Greek or calculus gets you into a tight corner, tie a tin to trouble—a tidy red tin of Prince Albert! Tamp a load of this really friendly tobacco into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and light up. Watch the sun crash through the clouds with every puff!

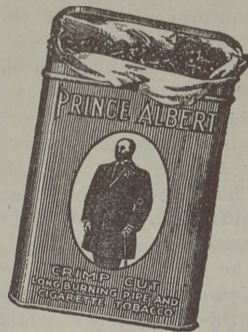

P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat, no matter how fast you feed it, because the Prince Albert process gave Bite and Parch the air at the start. Cool as a Laplander's lap. Sweet as apple cider. Fragrant as spring blossoms. That's Prince Albert!

One pipe-load invites another. And . . . you can hit P. A. from morning till midnight and it won't hit back. Don't put off to tomorrow what you can smoke today. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. and turn on the sunshine . . . now!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

SCHUMANN-HEINK

service she could in other ways. She has endeared herself to the boys of the American Legion since the war by meeting with them and singing for them whenever possible. A few years ago she made the long trip from her home in California to sing for the Legionaires of Texas at their State meeting in Brownwood.

Apart from American Legion affairs and similar affairs arranged for her by war veterans, Schumann-Heink seldom has any social engagements while on tour. As a rule she rests between concerts, except when time permits her to attend a "movie" of which she is a devoted fan. Her reception for A. and M. cadets prior to her concert at the college is expected to draw many who may wish to meet personally the great singer.

THE "U" ALL OVER

Wherever college men congregate, you'll see The "U" the smartest three-button model ever graduated from the school of good taste. You'll see it worn by men who demand the ultimate in style—who recognize true distinction in fabrics.
