

SPRING FANCIES.

There's a longing and unrest
Deeply rooted in the breast
Of every living thing.
There's a craving for a home,
Just a nest of your own,
In romantic spring.

There is a strong desire,
Burning as a fire,
That grips the very soul.
A passion that gives rise
To a new set of eyes
On life to behold.

A long dormant force,
A very natural one of course,
But like Vesuvius roar
It seethes through our veins;
It fevers our very brains,
And overwhelms us once more.

There's a hunger in our heart
Just to eat a part
Of the apples on the tree.
Though I curse Eve's mistake,
An apple I will take,
And give one, dear, to thee.

"My paw is having the devil of a time with his cattle raising business."
"No bull?"

Sweet Young Thing: "Don't you find college life exciting?"

Roughneck: "Exciting? Say, lady, its so monotonous you can write your diary for two weeks ahead of time!"
