AGGIE BAND READY FOR YEAR'S WORK

Has Largest Membership in History
Of College

The Aggie Band this year is composed of 110 pieces and is the best of its kind in the state. We Aggies are proud of it, and we have just cause to be. Just think what A. and
M. would be like without "Taps,"
"Goodbye to Texas," "Wildcat,"
"Spirit of Aggieland," and others that we know and love so well.

Also there is the orchestra that plays in Guion Hall each Sunday. We take it as a matter of course without thinking of the difficult task of organizing and maintaining an orchestra of this kind. For this orchestra, we are indebted to Mr. Dunn, our Band Director. He also directs the chorus that we will hear in Guion Hall
later on this year.

It is not definitely decided whether the band will go to the Sewanee game or not. We hope that it does though, because we know how it helps our
"Ole Army" when it needs help.

SAY BO DIDJA?

Say, bo didja ever write

***

Letters to a C. I. A. miss,

***

Start it when you were a

***

Fish, continue till you were

***

A Veteran, mingle a few visits

***

With that correspondence

***

Didja ever fail to answer a

***

Letter, keep putting it off,

***

Then get a note saying

***

Everything was all off

***

And didja send her a letter

***

Edged in black saying,

***

"Whereas God in His infinite

***

Wisdom," etc., that you were

***

Buried in a vacant lot

***

Have it typewritten and signed

***

By your Rummit and then

***

Get a "Special" box of flowers

***

With a card saying "Sympathy",

***

All for your grave and still

***

You were alive?

***

Didja? Robbie Robertson did.

Good Pick Up

"The horn on her car sounds like a fish peddler's."

"Well, she's looking for suckers."

***

"It"

"Darling, were you faithful while I was away?"

"Oh George, I was kissed twice."

"Name the men."

"First by the orchestra, and second
by the Rotary Club."
