FISCAL DEPARTMENT ABOUT TO REVOKE CHECK PRIVILEGE

Over 1,500 Checks Given Daily
Through Department

There is very little possibility that many of the students know the service the Fiscal Department is rendering day after day to the boys here. Their money is handled without charge and it is comparatively easy to get any kind of accommodation on checks, not that they are lax about their rules but that they realize the necessity of the students in using checks. They might be taking chances, as it sometimes proves but they are willing to trust the boys and handle any amount of checks for them.

The first two weeks of school there were over 2000 checks given each day and now there are still about 1500 checks a day coming in. This is a matter of great concern to the Department because, due to a limited budget, they are only allowed two men to handle the checking system and it requires at least three men to handle that many checks. Of course it is very convenient and sometimes necessary for the student to give a check of small denomination but by giving a check for enough to run him a week instead of a small check each day or two he can help the Fiscal Department and lessen their labors. He will also be able to keep a more accurate check on his account and not overcheck and be the cause of some twenty-five notices sent out each day for overchecking. This is a source of constant worry to the boys and to the Department because it takes their time in showing the boy where his account has really been overdrawn, due either to carelessness on his part or possibly to an error on the part of the employees, and it also hinders the Cashier from rendering the service to the people who are having to wait while that business is being straightened out.

The Fiscal Department reserves the right, and has received orders to do so, to limit checking privileges as it sees fit. The possibilities are that the privilege will be limited to one check a week for each student unless the checks stop coming in so fast. In a way this will work a hardship on some of the boys but it must be done in order to protect the Department. Mr. Holzmann, Comptroller of Accounts, has expressed the hope that these regulations will not have to be enforced but a decided change must immediately take place if checking privileges are to continue.

FT. WORTH FANS TO SEE
THANKSGIVING GAME
AT AGGIELAND

Railroad Fares Announced to College Station

The University Club of Fort Worth is arranging plans for a special train to be run to Aggieldand on Thanksgiving day to see the annual clash between the Texas Aggies and the Longhorns. It is expected that several hundred fans will make the trip to College Station including ex-students of the two schools and football fans of the city.

The train will leave Fort Worth over the Missouri Pacific lines at 7:30 a. m. Thanksgiving Day, arriving at College Station an hour and a half before the game, which begins at 2:30 p. m. This will give visitors ample time to orient themselves and prepare for the game. The return trip will start at 6 p. m. and arrive at Ft. Worth at 11:30 p. m.

Robert Watson, division passenger agent for the Missouri Pacific, announced that the round trip ticket for chair cars will be $5.20. For Pullmans the round trip fare will be $7.65 and the Pullman charge one way will be $1.50.

The ticket selling for $7.65 is also good on trains leaving College Station before midnight on Saturday after the game on Thursday. This will give fans an opportunity to remain for all of the dances to be held in College Station during the holidays.

ANOTHER SAY BO!

Say Bo didja
Get all shined up
For that Corps Trip
And didja sally forth
To Cow Town to
Show the fair city
What distinguished cadets
Came from Aggieldand to Grace the streets of
Fort Worth for the parade
Didja do your bit to Display the results of
Your training received as
A Cadet at A. & M.
Then having proved your ability

Didja go over
To the Texas Hotel lobby
And proudly wait to Meet that sweet thing
With an air of importance
And in the meantime
Have a curious bystander
Come up to you and
Ask you if you were
The Commandant of A and M?
Didja?
Lt. Carl Mitchell of Monty's
Mounted did!

He was as one spellbound by the magic of her loveliness. The tender charm of her utterly enthralled him, causing time to pass unheeded as his eyes feasted upon her beauty. A silence rested upon him as he toyed with tender, half-dreamed thoughts of her and his whole being thrilled to her nearness. He was completely captivated, happy in an abject worship of her winsome grace. Her completeness dazed him, dregged his senses with the heaviness of desire for her. He was as a man in a dream. He didn't even know when she took his watch.

"I wonder what that social uplift is doing now that he's dead?"
"Raising Hell, I suppose."
