Cadet Corps Complimented on Conduct in Fort Worth

Letters have been received in the Commandant's office from the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and several of the places visited by the Aggies in Fort Worth, stating that our visit was a pleasure to them and complimenting us on our gentlemanly conduct. The letter from the Chamber of Commerce reads:

"Dear Col. Nelson:
 No doubt you will have received other letters of this type from various ones, however I want you to know that it was indeed a pleasure to serve A. & M. College. If all are satisfied at that end as to the entertainment for the boys, the faculty and tactical officers, then we are more than pleased.

"No doubt there were several little mishaps, but we want to assure you that if there were any, they were unintentional.

"If by any chance we might be of assistance to you in any form don't hesitate to call upon us.

"Fort Worth was indeed pleased as to the conduct of all and to say the least, it was a pleasure to have you all with us.

Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce."

One cafeteria expressed the pleasure of serving dinner to more than 500 cadets, and stated that all Aggies who ate there conducted themselves as perfect gentlemen.

A. and M. Army Officers Inspect Allen

On October 12, three of our Army Officers, Colonel Nelson, Captain Aldridge and Captain Besse, were visitors at Allen Academy for the purpose of inspecting the Dallas Company drill. Each of these pointed out different errors and it seems that after their visit the company improved very rapidly. Col. Nelson said the company was not perfect but should put up a very creditable showing.

New Buildings Erected at Texas Tech

Many distinguished visitors were present at the game in Lubbock last Friday, and the Board of Directors of Texas Tech had meetings both in the morning and in the afternoon of the same day. The unit of the agricultural building which has just been completed at a cost of around $13,000 by J. B. Maxey, contractor of Lubbock, was accepted by the board. The board also put its stamp of approval upon a suggestion of entering the Southern Association of Colleges and the Southwestern Conference. Among the visitors was Capt. W. E. Lynd of Kelly Field, who appeared before the board and submitted valuable information regarding a prospective aviation school.

At noon Friday the A. and M. Exes Club of Lubbock entertained the visiting Aggies with a duck barbecue. More than 200 ducks were brought down a few days before the game by W. G. McMillan, former Aggie grid star, and other Lubbock Aggies for the feast. The Tech alumni held their first reunion that night.

throughout the year and it is also planning to have a banquet sometime during the winter months.

8TH CORPS TEAM IS NINETEENTH IN NATIONAL MATCH

ROTC Team Which Includes Six A. & M. Men Wins Distinction At Camp Perry

Bulletins have just been received from the headquarters of the National Rifle and Pistol Matches showing that A. and M. men stand well to the front as riflemen. Six members of the present Senior Class were on the twelve man 8th Corps Area R. O. T. C. team, which placed nineteenth in the National Rifle Team Match at Camp Perry, Ohio. They were: J. D. Seifer, G. P. Box, M. E. Dietert, L. Fagg, E. A. Dillon, and J. Neff. Ninety-nine teams, representing all branches of the service and from all parts of the United States, competed in the match. The U. S. Infantry won with a total of 2838 points out of a possible 3000, while the 8th Corps Area R. O. T. C. team made a score of 2687.

Distinctive medals were given the 8th Corps Area team in recognition of their high place in the National Match. In the R. O. T. C. match, the 8th Corps Area lost to the 7th Corps Area team by a margin of 48 out of 3000 points. Second place medals were also received for this event.

Over two thousand of the best marksmen of the country competed in the match and several members of the 8th Corps Team won distinction. H. N. Renshaw, team captain and cadet colonel of Arizona State College, placed in the President's Match and won the Scabbard and Blades Trophy Match. Renshaw was the eleventh man on the United States team which defeated Great Britain in the Dewar Trophy Match, and he was winner of the Two Man Short Range Match. H. H. Lisle, cadet major and ranking officer of New Mexico State College, placed second in the Scabbard and Blades Match and sixth in the Leech Cup Match. J. Neff placed in the National Individual Pistol Match.
