

You'll like
and how!

OPEN a tidy red tin of Prince Albert and give your olfactory nerve a treat. Never have you met an aroma that had so much come-and-get-it. Some fragrance, Fellows. And that's just a starter. Load up and light up. . . .

Cool as final exams. Sweet as passing. Mild as cafe au lait—mild, but with that rich, full-bodied flavor that bangs your smoke-gong right on the nose on every fire-up. You'll like this long-burning Prince Albert in the bowl of a pipe. And how!

PRINCE ALBERT

—the national joy smoke!

One of the first things you notice about P. A. is that it never bites your tongue or parches your throat, no matter how wide you open the smoke-throttle. It is one tobacco that never wears out its welcome. You can stoke and smoke to your heart's content, with P. A. for packing. Get some Prince Albert now and get going!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

WEEK'S NEWS

As announced in last week's "Bat," the A. and M. Livestock Judging Team won first place in the contest at Wichita, Kansas, and second place in the American Royal Livestock Show at Kansas City, Mo. The team from the Kansas State Agricultural College was the winner in the Royal with a score of 4,314 out of a possible 5,000 points. A. and M. won second place by one point over the University of Illinois. Beside that of the Kansas team, some of the scores were:

Texas A. and M.	4,282
University of Illinois	4,281
Ohio State College	4,277
Oklahoma A. & M.	4,276
Iowa State College	4,241
University of Missouri	4,226

Other teams from colleges in the mid-west and west were entered, each team composed of five persons. Cecil W. Means, of the University of Nebraska, was the winner in the individual contest with a score of 926 points out of a possible 1,000.

The Texas Tech team was the only other one from this state, and while they were well down the line in the Royal, they made a good showing in the contest at Wichita. They were fourth in the contest and only 57 points behind the A. and M. team.

Baylor University's Annual for 1926-27, "The Round-Up," was the winner in the college annual and year-book contest, it was announced last Thursday. The contest was conducted in Iowa City, Iowa, to determine the best annual printed last year. This is the first time in the history of annual or yearbook competition that a Texas school has won first place.

The University of Texas "Cactus" won second place in 1923-24, and Baylor annuals of that same year and the year previous took fifth place. "In the land of cotton," was the motif of last year's winner.

A. & M. STEER BRINGS
$1 LB. AT K. C. SHOW

Kansas City, Nov. 18.—"Bonnie Anxiety 10th," champion purebred steer owned by the Texas A. & M. College brought $1 a pound on the hoof when sold at auction Friday at the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show here.

Our noted friend and football captain, Mr. Joel Hunt of Waco, seems to be quite in the limelight in society circles of late. After the game Thursday, the Dallas Club presented the team with a hugh fruit cake, and he was given the honor of cutting the first slice. After leading the Thanksgiving Grand March, he proceeded to Temple Friday, and was called upon to address the Bell County A. and M. Club at its monthly banquet. He paid great tribute to Coach Bible, and urged that the right kind of young men be encouraged to come to Aggieland in order that future athletics here will have the best of material for selections.

We have solved the mystery of the airplane that was conspicuous here on Thanksgiving day, and have found that the staff of the Dallas News used one for the quick transportation of pictures of the Texas-A. and M. game to Dallas. The pictures were made at the game by one of the paper's photographers and the exposed

SOPHOMORE CLASS

ELECTS OFFICERS

Conover Proves to be Active in Class Affairs as Well as Athletics

The Sophomore Class held its first meeting of the year Wednesday after dinner. A fairly representative crowd was present in the chapel for a short business meeting. Officers were chosen during a short but lively and interesting election. Brooks Conover, Dallas, was elected President; T. W. Mills, Groesbeck, elected Vice-President; J. E. Brown, Alvord, elected Sec.-Treas.; F. E. Kavanaugh, Port Arthur, was elected class historian. Conover belongs to "C" Troop Cavalry, Mills to "A" Company Infantry, Brown to Company B Signal Corps, and Kavanaugh to Air Corps. All of the officers are well known; three of them being varsity football men. With capable leaders the sophomore class is looking forward to a splendid record for this year.

AUTOMOBILES BANNED AT MANY INSTITUTIONS

New York, Oct. 26 (New Student Service).—With rush week at an end, student automobiles in many colleges are taking their cars home, and by deans' orders leaving them there. As a topic for discussion in college press and, evidently in chapel and fraternity house, the ever growing stringency of anti-automobile rules, designed to remove at least one obstacle in the way of serious study.

University of Oklahoma, DePauw, University of Illinois, Princeton, Wesleyan, Ursinus, Dartmouth and Michigan are among the drive-at-the-risk-of-expulsion institutions. Exceptions are made in some cases where cars are needed for business purposes.

Princeton, with perhaps the severest rules, grants the use of automobiles to disabled students only. These favored drivers are forbidden, however, from permitting other students to use their automobiles or to ride with them. It was these rules that resulted in the resignation of the student council last year.

Son: "Say Pop, what are spectacles?"

Pop: "Spectacles, my son, are glasses which people look through."

Son: "If you looked through the window would you call it a spectacle?"

Pop: "It all depends on what you saw."
