FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS FEAST ON 91-POUND SCHEPP'S FRUIT CAKE

The Dallas A. & M. Club presented the 1927 Aggie football champions with a huge 91-pound specially baked fruit cake as a reward for their successful work immediately after the game Thanksgiving Day and the cake was more than enough for all of them and their friends. It was baked by The Schepp's Bakeries of Dallas under the supervision of Julius and George Schepps themselves and was a beautiful thing in addition to its size and eating qualities. The names of every man on the Aggie team were enrolled on the cake in icing, along with those of the coaches. Captain Hunt cut the first slice.
