CREATORE'S BAND HERE FRIDAY.

of conductor but none has reached the style of Creatore. During the twenty-five years he has been in America, he has watched many changes in the music of the day. He has seen the "cake walk" come and go, the foxtrot pass into the musical beyond and is now watching with interest the reign of jazz.

Creatore's Band includes forty-seven musicians. As added attractions he is presenting on this tour Miss Pauline Talma, of San Francisco, celebrated young soprano; Marie Roselli, Italian harpist, and a saxophone octette. He has arranged interesting programs for his tour ranging from the symphonies of Beethoven, Brahma, Mozart and others to modern day jazz.

The concert at College Station will be a college program, according to the announcement, designed to be of especial interest to young folks as well as more mature music lovers.

Prices for the concert will be one dollar for entire lower floor and seventy-five cents for the balcony. No seats will be reserved for individuals. The balcony will be reserved for members of the Corps.

FIVE MOST POPULAR SENIORS ELECTED.

Peoples, "Siki" Sikes, Lacy Bourland, and "Bubba" Blount were the chosen ones.

Joel Hunt is no doubt the best looking of the group and besides being our captain and the best football player in the Southwest, he has been busy the last few weeks getting his name in print all over the country.

Allen Peoples is our yell-leader and chief wise-cracker, and has put in a very successful season at both jobs.

"Siki" is not only Joel's roommate but is our only three-letter man in three sports and not long ago helped show those nasty Eastern boys how to play football.

Lacy Bourland is our cadet colonel and has a drag with the commandant's daughter. (We've said too much already—oh, yes, business manager of the Bat, too.)

"Bubba" Blount is the Senior Class president, and the head-man in the first battalion of paddle-foots.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES ANNOUNCED.

JUNIOR A. H. TEAM WORKING FOR CONTEST

About fifteen juniors are working hard in anticipation of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth the second week of March. This is an annual contest and the juniors are working for places on the team. Six men will be picked to represent the college. The selection will be made on the basis of their records made in the next two months at school. The Texas Aggies are out this year to beat the Oklahoma Aggies who won last year. This contest is a splendid means of giving the men experience in judging in preparation for the national and international contests next fall.

A SPEECH GIVEN BEFORE THE ONE BUTTONEER CLUB

Gentlemen... Officers by the skin of our teeth and an act of the Colonel's, Gentlemen... as Mark Anthony said to Helen of Troy, lend me your ears... I have that to say tonight which will inevitably relieve me of a great burden and can not but make yourselves somewhat the wiser, it is of the utmost importance to every loyal member of this noble collection of almost failures who choose to designate themselves as the One Buttoneers Club.

Our college career is slowly, oh very slowly, drawing to a close, a close I might say that is highly satisfactory to each and every one of us. Why? A perfectly natural question in view of the fact that each of us represents a pitcher that went to the well and though not broken is still empty. We represent a class of student which by passive resistance, absolutely refused to have any military knowledge stuffed into our heads, ours was the far nobler pursuit of knowledge, polish and women, did I hear an amen?

Then why should our college career be regarded as a success? Gentlemen it should not only be regarded as a success... it is an unqualified success. We are one group here in this noble institution that no one can truthfully accuse of having curried favor. Has not the Military department awarded us the honor of wearing one button in signal recognition of that very fact? Indeed they have.

And so gentlemen... It is my pleasure as I stand here tonight before you, to request that we extend our heartiest sentiments of appreciation to the department that so honored us in the form of a large bouquet of flowers. I thank you.

"Empty vessels make the greatest sound." Maybe that is the reason most of us are so noisy.
