

They say P.A. is the world's largest seller

I DON'T doubt it, nor do I wonder why. Just open a tidy red tin and get that full fragrance of Nature's noblest gift to pipe-smokers. Then tuck a load in the business-end of your old jimmy-pipe.

Now you've got it—that taste—that Lead-me-to-it, Gee-how-I-like-it taste! Cool as a condition. Sweet as making it up. Mellow and satisfying. Try this mild, long-burning tobacco, Fellows. I know you'll like it.

*You can pay more but you can't get

large thermometer which described each of Dr. Walton's remarks as "lie," "funny statement," or "hot air."

The musical and dancing program would have done credit to any vaudeville circuit. The dancers centered their attention on Coach Bible—much to the delight of the other men.

Among the crowd of about 400 were members of the Aggie football squad and the Athletic Department, Dr. Walton, Col. Nelson, E. E. McQuillen, Dean Friley, Dean Kyle and Ike Ashburn.

of the hicks in their annual merry-making.

The "One Buttoneers" Club will have their dance on the first night of mid-term holidays, Thursday, in the Mess Hall Annex from 9 to 2, and the Barnyard Dance will be Friday, Feb. 3rd, from nine to two. The usual Corps Dance will follow on Saturday.

By direct wire from the College Station "Bulletin":

The Amalgamated Association of Female Stenographers and Secretaries of the A. and M. College of Texas announce that they have created a fund to provide tin cups and dark glasses for cadets who lose their eyesight by too much staring. The president of the organization states that she has arranged to buy moustache cups for "Limmie" McBride, "Swede" Pratt, and other bewhiskered members of the cadet corp.
