R. V. SENIOR ELECTION HELD

Ross Volunteers Elect Thirty More Seniors.

The Ross Volunteers held a meeting last Sunday for the election of thirty more seniors, in order to bring the roster of seniors in the company up to the standard size. Each old man was allowed to put up two seniors as candidates for election, but only sixty men were put up by the forty-nine old members. Each of the old members was then allowed thirty votes and after the voting was over the highest thirty of the candidates were declared members. The company will assume its standard size with the election of fifty juniors on Sunday, November 4th.

The seniors who were elected are as follows: Vergne Adams, Brinkoeter, Brummett, Carter, Crecelius, Dodge, Dauterive, Dansby, Dockum, Engel, Fuller, Farquahar, Fishback, Gunn, Humphries, Jerome Harris, Hein, Kilpatrick, Gale Oliver, Boswell Porter, Pochyla, Rice, Schultze, Stevens, Skains, M. A. Smith, Bill Taylor, Trail, Grimes, Woodruff.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF MISS HELEN SEGERS.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom, has called to her last resting place, Miss Helen Segers, sister of our classmate;

Therefore, be it resolved by the senior class that we extend to J. W. Segers, and other members of the family our sincerest sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. J. E. Segers and family of the deceased, a copy to The Battalion, and a copy to the Texarkana newspaper.

W. D. ARMSTRONG,
President.

Help.

It is rumored that a man student at Northwestern University is threatening to leave school because he fears he will be denied free speech during the coming year. His school, he says, has a registration of 150 women and only 15 men.

"A RAW DEAL FOR THE PUBLIC AT A. & M."

A REPLY

Under this sarcastic title there was published on the front page of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram last Monday a cowardly, unsportsmanlike editorial directed against Mr. James Sullivan, Business Manager of Athletics at A. and M. College, accusing him of having "without explanation, issued an order against the broadcasting of the T. C. U.-A. & M. game by the Fort Worth newspaper's radio station last Saturday.

In attempting to vindicate itself before the public for what the Star-Telegram terms as a failure in their "pursuance of a policy of public service," it very cleverly presents to its readers only that side of the situation which does justice to itself, without any regard to the other side of the situation, which no doubt would place the newspaper in an embarrassing position. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram has misrepresented the facts to its readers as well as to its radio listeners to whom it only announced the ONE side of the situation that appeared on the aforementioned editorial.

Since the Star-Telegram wants to bring out before the public this deplorable incident, and since it was not honest and daring enough to tell to the "many thousands of Texans intensely interested in the football game at College Station" the truth about both sides of the situation, it is for us to inform that public of the actual truth of the matter, and we challenge the Fort Worth Star Telegram to deny anyone or all of the contentions we make.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram announced to its readers a week ahead of time that they were to broadcast the game through their own radio station. The newspaper was not foresighted enough, nor did it have the common decency to ask the A. and M. radio authorities if they would be allowed to do it in their own way. They took for granted that due to the larger size of their station, they could push the A. and M. radio station out of their way and thus place themselves in the role of sole benefactors of the public. They absolutely disregarded the policy which the A. and M. radio station has observed for the past two years, and which other radio stations just as large as WBAP have duly observed in past football games. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, the day before the game, made a proposal to the A. and M. authorities to broadcast the game through their own station, WBAP, and have charge of the whole affair. The A. and M. authorities replied with an offer to allow the Fort Worth newspaper to simultaneously broadcast the game with station WTAW, the college radio station. In this way the Star-Telegram's station could have hooked up with the A. and M. station, and thus the return of the game would have been broadcasted without any failure of the Star-Telegram in its "pursuance of a policy of public service." The Fort Worth Star-Telegram refused this offer; it refused the consideration given to it by the right which "any agency engaged in serving the public" should have, it was absolutely unwilling to cooperate with the A. and M. authorities; it selfishly wanted to receive all the credit for that service or none at all; it failed to compromise and also failed to take advantage of a fair and efficient way to perform the public service of which they boast so sarcastically. To make matters worse, the Fort Worth newspaper tried to "wash its hands" of the mistake they had made, by having radio station WBAP announce to their listeners that they had "without explanation" been refused by "the arbitrary decision of a single person" permission to broadcast the game.

The people of Fort Worth and readers of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram know A. and M., its authorities and its students, only too well to believe the ridiculous and unsportsmanlike statements made by the Fort Worth newspaper. We are not offering apologies where none are due, but we certainly expect apologies for that hypocritical editorial from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, we believe they are due to us on the grounds of honor, sportsmanship, and truthfulness.

Juniors of A. H. Department to Give

Whoopie! Ride 'em cowboys, and how! Wild bronchoes and steers; wild pallooting goats, cows, and pigs; yells galore; cowboys and real ones—no foolin'—peanuts, popcorn, and pop; pretty girls and—well now, let's not go into details—but all in all it is going to be WILD. Have you guessed what it is? Why we knew that you would say 'circus' but you are all wet. Shhhhh, now we will tell you, boys: the great and magnificent, the one and only, the wild and wooly, the reckless and robust, the pride and joy of westerners is again about to arrive on the scene of our lives; again will make our hair stand on our heads and, fellers, it is nothing more than the Annual

T. C. U.-A. AND M. CORPS DANCE WELL ATTENDED

In an attempt to return the hospitality shown by the T. C. U. students last year, the Aggie student body played host for an evening to the T. C. U. visitors. Music was furnished by the Aggieland which proved very efficient for the occasion. Although it was only the second Corps Dance of the season, it proved to be a huge success. The majority of the T. C. U. girls had to return on the special which left around 7 o'clock and did not get a chance to attend the dance. However, there were quite a few who had permission to remain until the 12 o'clock train. The fact that this was appreciated could be seen by the number of Aggies who went to the dance.

The way "Buck" Morris, our social secretary, put this entertainment over assures us that the dance program for the year will be a success. We wish to thank the T. C. U. students for helping us enjoy the occasion.
