

The BATTALION

If you lie to the public—that's business.
If you lie to your friends—it's policy.
But—If you lie to yourself, that's down-right foolishness.

MOTHERS DAY PLANS COMPLETE

The faculty senior class, and student body of A. and M. will join hands in the reception and entertainment of the Mothers and Dads on Sunday, May 12th. The college plans to have an exceptionally large crowd this year and efforts are being extended to get as many parents to come as possible. Programs have been printed including a request on the part of the college for the presence of the parents of the students, housing facilities have been arranged, and many entertainment features prepared.

The A. and M. Mother's club is having Mr. David Guion, famous New York pianist, to give a concert Sunday afternoon. Mr. Guion is a native Texan, although having resided in New York for several years. He is a composer of some repute, and his best work has been done in transcribing Texas Folk songs. He is bringing with him a tenor who will sing several of these folk songs.

Several other features of the program will be a tour of the campus Saturday afternoon, a reception on the lawn of the president's home, a banquet in the mess hall with the student body Sunday noon, and concert by the Band Sunday afternoon.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES SPRING ELECTION TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Most Useful Athlete of Year, Editor and Business Manager of Bat and Chief Yell Leader to be Chosen.

The election which is held every year to determine the most popular athlete for the current year, the chief yell leader, editor-in-chief of the Battalion, and business manager of the Battalion for the following year will be held in the rotunda of the Main Building on Thursday, May 9th. The men who will occupy these positions are chosen by popular vote of the student body.

This election is one of primary importance to the school, since by it two of the key officers of next year's senior class will be selected. Therefore, it is the duty of every student to give this matter thorough consideration before the time comes to vote. All students are urged to cast their vote, expressing thereby their unbiased opinion of the men whom they think are the most qualified for the positions.

The following is the ballot which has been prepared for the election:

BAND TAKES C. OF C. HONORS

The Aggie Band won first place in the college class in the recent band contest held at the Sue Haswell Memorial Park. The contest, according to Mr. Lightfoot, chairman for the event, was the best in the history of the competitions. There were 41 bands which appeared at the park during the affair. A larger audience heard the bands than ever before. Second place was won by the Beaumont High School band and third honors were won by Allen Academy.

Beaumont won the 20-inch trophy given by the national bandmasters' association for the year by winning first in the high school class. The band also won a bronze plaque for all time by winning second place against all competition.

Our College band was made the official East Texas Chamber of Commerce band, and was awarded several prizes for winning first in the competition.

EAST TEXANS THROG CAMPUS

The spectators who witnessed the East Texas Chamber of Commerce pageant held at Kyle Field Monday night beheld in the writer's opinion one of the most beautiful pageants ever staged in Texas. It was the one crowning success and achievement of the Convention. The elaborate preparations made the event possible, but it could not have had such a great success without the really splendid cooperation which was shown. The student body, the Aggie band, the Consolidated School, the Queen and her court, the people of Bryan and College gave unceasingly of their efforts in helping put it over, in which they were largely successful. A vote of thanks is due them.

It would be a rather hard matter to write a resume of all the various activities and events which took place during the Convention. So many things have happened and so many people have visited during the last few days that it will become a comparatively hard matter to get used to usualities again. Both Bryan and College will seem deserted as compared with the crowded condi-

JUNIORS DISCUSS CLASS PROBLEMS

Last Friday at 12:45 in the "Y" Chapel at a meeting of the Junior Class, Lester Hanks, president, brought several important issues before this assembly.

The first to be discussed was a swimming pool fund on which the present Senior Class has been thinking seriously of leaving an initial amount in order to realize every Aggie's ambition for a swimming pool. The seniors are anxious to start this fund if the following classes will also leave their last gift to the school in the monetary fashion and for this fund. A vote was taken and it was almost unanimous in favor of starting a fund.

The next decision was one that had to do with the wearing of the Senior rings by the Juniors. All of the boys agreed that it was not quite fair for the Juniors to usurp one of the few remaining privileges of the Seniors, and each man agreed that he would wait until next year to wear his ring.

The last thing to be discussed was the Junior Prom and Banquet. The chairman of the committees reported that the favors have been selected, the arrangements are complete, and the finances are under

SADDLE-SIRLOIN STRUGGLE FRIDAY

Friday night, the "Cowboys" of the campus will move about in the Mess Hall Annex to the tunes of Babe Schindler's Orchestra; not with a rope and a six-shooter but with a tender-to-embrace arm and smiles on their faces that will capture any maiden sooner and easier than any six-shooter. Thus the Saddle and Sirloin Club will hold its annual dance for the enjoyment and pleasure of its members.

All efforts are being made to make this year's dance better than any previous ones. Members for
