

tenths of a second faster than any one in the conference has run it in dual meets this year.

This was one of the most successful meets ever held here and was run off in perfect style. Two hundred and thirty-one men were registered and 30 high schools represented. The weather was ideal and the track in splendid shape.

Now "Sully" is forced to buy another cup for the annual clash of high school track stars.

ABOUT "WHISKEY

(Continued From Page 8)

key;" though, for want of evidence, we are unable to say whether or not he came by this title honestly.

Before finishing here in 1918, he distinguished himself chiefly as a judge of live-stock, and as a baseball pitcher. He was a member of the National Stock Judging team, and won many honors in this capacity; but it was in baseball that he won his widest recognition. He first attracted attention in his fish year, when he shut out the varsity one day with two hits; and since fish were eligible then, he was immediately taken on the squad, where he turned in many victories during his four years. His team-mates rewarded him for his excellent work by electing him captain for the season of '18, when he had his best year.

"Whiskey" is connected with the Extension Service as District Agent, and it is hoped by all the radio fans that he will continue to be here, as his reports of the games, based on his wide baseball experience, are

BOARD TO RULE

(Continued from Page 8)

policy for this Tuesday must have dazed the majority of the Corps.

Summary of the First Games:

	R. H. E.
S. M. U.000 102 0 3 6 3
Aggies000 110 0 2 5 2
Batteries: (S. M. U.) Lyle and Drye; (A. & M.) Wendt and Lackey.
Umpire: Cawthorne.

Undaunted by the outcome of the first game, Coach Bob Countryman's fighting Texas Aggie diamond crew came back in the second contest and scored two runs in the second and one in the fourth.

the next best thing to seeing the games.

Diffey started the contest for the Mustangs, but was relieved in the second frame, after the Aggies had touched him for a single and triple for two tallies. Lyle relieved him and attempted the iron man job, but was not as successful in the second tilt.

Hill, fleet center fielder of the visitors, turned in several star plays and saved Lyles a few extra base blows. The Aggies featured the game with long hitting, Cody and Harris connected for triples.

Summary of Second Game

	R. H. E.
S. M. U.000 000 0 0 2 2
Aggies020 10x x 3 6 1
Batteries: (S. M. U.) Diffey, Lyle and Drye. (A. & M.) Mills and Harris.
Umpire: Cawthorne.

You can bank on the quality of a cigarette that continues to be the biggest success in smoking history

CAMEL

CIGARETTES

WHY CAMELS ARE THE BETTER CIGARETTE

Camels contain the choicest tobaccos grown ... expertly blended for matchless taste and fragrance.

They have a welcome mellowness and mildness that you will find in no other cigarette.

Smoke them as often as you like, Camels never tire your taste.

The quality of Camels is never permitted to vary.

Only a superior cigarette could have won and held world leadership for all these years as Camel has done.

