Tackle was called home and is not expected to return. The Arkansas coaches have a tough problem facing them in replacing such stars as Beavers, Lambert, and Winters, who graduated last June.

September tenth saw the cover knocked completely off the football season and now the most fantastic fans in the world, those who follow the gridiron game, will come into their own.

men we would like to know and sometimes like to be. Interspersing the descriptions and narrations in the sketches are the comments of Dreiser, many of them well worth reading and considering, although they are notably lacking in the thought that has characterized some of his other productions. Possibly a little more expression of the "bad taste in his mouth" with less of the "style of bad grammar" would be an improvement.
