

AGGIES, FROGS RENEW HOSTILITIES

DROP KICKS.

Two old scores were settled and one repulsed when the Farmers meted out a 19-0 defeat to the Kansans. Way back in 1910 the Aggies journeyed to Manhattan only to return on the blank end of an 8-0 score. Then two years later the Kansans came to Texas and took the long end of a 13-10 score in a bitter struggle which many veteran Aggie grid fans cite as one of the most colorful battles in the history of the school. This 19-0 win settles that score.

Then the coach of the Aggie eleven settled a score with his old team mate. Back in 1923, "Bo's" Centenary Gentleman journeyed to Fort Worth and crushed the light Frog team 23-0. It was Matty Bell's first year at T. C. U., and with his first team at Aggieland he settled this score. All Coach McMillan can show is a large number of his grey hairs pulled out during the little fray at Dallas. The sport scribes enjoyed themselves for once, this hair pulling stunt being a little different.

And again "Bo" is disappointed. As All-American quarterback of the world champion Centre College eleven, he suffered one of his most humiliating defeats. He'll have to come again.

About 1400 tickets have been sold to the students for the Frog-Aggie clash. All students are urged to get their tickets as soon as possible.

Brown, Bible and Van Zandt are out for awhile, but are expected to get in the T. C. U. game. Their injuries not being considered serious. Misfortune seems to be hovering

- *****
- ### LAST WEEK'S SCORES
- * Texas Aggies 19; Kansas Aggies 0.
 - * Baylor 19; St. Edwards 0.
 - * Texas U. 27; Arkansas 0.
 - * T. C. U. 28; Centenary 0.
 - * S. M. U. 15; Austin College 0.
 - * Rice 14; Southwestern 6.
 - * Mississippi 7; Tennessee 52.
 - * Louisiana State 27; Sewanee 14.
 - * Nebraska 13; Syracuse 6.
 - * U. of Oklahoma 26; Creighton 0.
 - * Tulane 34; Miss. Aggies 0
- *****

TEAMS ARE OUTSTANDING CONFERENCE CONTENDERS.

Victorious over strong intersectional rivals last week having definitely placed their teams as outstanding contenders for Southwest Conference laurels, Coach Matty Bell, of the Texas Aggies, and Coach Francis Schmidt of the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, are expected to leave nothing unused in their bags of football tricks and tactics when they place their teams on the field to blast the cap off their 1929 conference schedules at Fort Worth, Saturday.

Early games of both teams indicate that both contestants have effective aerial attacks and baffling wide-open systems of play which are expected to make Saturday's game loom as one replete with all the action and color that daring offensive tactics can bring.

Coach Frank Anderson, Aggie track and freshman grid mentor, who saw the Horned Frogs trounce the Centenary Gents last Saturday, characterized the T. C. U. eleven as "one of the strongest in the history of T. C. U. and one of the smoothest-working, least excitable teams I have ever seen."

The Aggie coach also described Howard Grubbs, veteran Horned Frog quarterback, as "one of the best passers the Southwest has boasted in several years." It was largely due to this sterling backfield ace that the Frogs were able to thoroughly perform their task against the Gents last week.

Though slightly hampered during the early part of the week by the absence from practice of Joe Brown, center; Roscoe Van Zandt, guard; and Hollis Bible, quarterback, the Aggies, acting upon these reports on the Frogs, wasted no time in getting down to intensive training for their T. C. U. fray and their week's work is being featured by daily scrimmages against T. C. U. plays and formations as presented by Coach Roswell Higginbotham's Aggie freshmen.

Much attention has been given to perfecting a defense especially for the offensive play of the Horned Frog eleven, and several new offensive plays instituted particularly for use Saturday indicate that fans may keep their eyes open for plenty in the way of surprise plays against the Frogs.

Bible, Brown, and Van Zandt, who were all out with minor injuries early in the week, are expected to be in tip-top shape when Coach Bell takes his team to Fort Worth Saturday. No really serious injuries resulted in the Kansas Aggie game last week.

Of particular interest to Aggie fans will be the 1929 debut of Ralph Dorsey, Aggie half who, because of a broken hand has not participated in a single game this season. It is interesting to note that this dangerous triple-threat man of the Aggies will make his initial bow of the season in his home town, Fort Worth. Leonard Clark, who got into action against the Kansans last week, is another back whose recovery greatly enhances the chances of the Aggie eleven.

HILL AND DALERS IN FIRST COMPETITION

With a squad of 22 men, four of whom are lettermen, Coach Anderson has every reason to look forward to a successful cross country season. Although it is rather early to make any predictions it seems that the Aggies stand a good chance of retaining the Southwest Conference title which they have held since 1927.

Captained by C. Y. Shoemaker, elongated stepper from Palestine, the squad has been working diligently for the past three weeks. R. N. Winders, S. B. Michael, Ed. Thompson and Shoemaker are the four lettermen who have returned. M. H. Badger and Red Brown, both lettermen of the '28 team, are not out this year; Badger is being saved for the track season while Brown transferred. Moore, captain of the

(Continued on Page 12)

FOREIGN FIELDS

There seems to be quite an epidemic of sorry school spirit prevailing among a few of the Southwestern conference schools. Here a couple of weeks ago the Texas University students took occasion to run their own famous Longhorn band off the football field under a barrage of apples and cushions. They must have a good football team that can keep winning games behind such spirit. By the way, they have discontinued selling apples and cushions at the Texas games. It's a good thing they don't peddle baseball bats and shot-puts!

In a recent game that Rice Institute played with Sam Houston Teachers College, the stands were thrown into an uproar when some of the students began heaving cushions out on the field and also at the cash customers. Drastic steps have been taken by the Institute authorities to put a stop to the throwing.

The supposed "big intersectional clash" between S. M. U. and the University of Mississippi should be nothing more than a walkaway for the Mustangs. Although the sports scribes have been boosting the game, Ole Miss' record is enough to give the Ponies a big edge. They have played three games, losing to Alabama, 22-7, Vanderbilt, 19-7 and to Tennessee, 52-7. They meet at Fair Park Stadium in Dallas Saturday.

University of Missouri students will take to the air in the future when going to foreign fields to see their football team play. Cabin airplanes service has been provided for the students and their first big trip will be to New York, when they

AGGIES SMOTHER KANSAS.

Scoring a touchdown before the fans had seated themselves and two in the last quarter, the Texas Aggies overwhelmed the Aggies of Kansas in one of the hardest fought football classics this fall, 19-0. The famous "Bo" trotted 32 huskies of Kansas on the Fair Park stadium in a vain effort to stem the Aggies' scoring attack. It seemed that for a part of the game his men could bruise through the Aggie line at until they reached spots that threatened the Aggie cause. Later in the game it seemed that the speedy backs and fighting line had spent themselves and could do no more than hold their own. Had it not been for penalties, the Aggies score and victory would have been much more impressive, but 19 points are more than enough for this game.

The first score came early in the (Continued on Page 12)

- *****
- ### WHERE THEY PLAY THIS WEEK
- * October 18.
 - * S. M. U. vs. S. M. U. Colts at Dallas.
 - * October 19.
 - * Aggies vs. T. C. U. at Fort Worth.
 - * Texas U. vs. Oklahoma U. at Dallas.
 - * Baylor vs. Arkansas at Waco.
 - * U. of Mississippi vs. Loyola at New Orleans.
- *****