COMMITTEES TO SELECT 1929 GRID CHAMPS IN NOVEL WAY

An authoritative attempt to select the championship college football team for 1929 will be made under new and novel circumstances during the coming autumn, according to an announcement just made by the committee which will undertake the task.

Under the chairmanship of W. O. McGeehan, nationally known sports columnist and newspaper writer, and with the sponsorship of a committee of prominent amateur sports patrons, the aid of 250 newspaper sports editors is being enlisted to secure an "exhaustive and satisfactory national selection for the Albert Russel Erskine Award." Sponsors of the plan are Albert Russel Erskine, president of the Studebaker corporation, and the following committee; Theodore Roosevelt, New York; John McBowman, New York, head of the Bowman hotel chain; W. T. Anderson, publisher of the Macon, Georgia Telegraph; W. R. Moorehouse, vice-president of the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles; Walter M. Christie, track coach of the University of California; W. T. Clayton, of Anderson, Clayton, and Company, Houston; Martin J. Collins, president of the Graham Paper Company, St. Louis; Feg Murray, sports cartoonist, Avery Bundage, president of the Central Association of the A. A. U.; and Walter C. Allen, president of the Yale and Towne Manufacturing Company, Stamford, Conn.

A preliminary ballot will be taken in December among the 250 sports critics and a final ballot will then be voted on the few teams which get through the first ballot. Between the halves of the New Year's day game in California, the winning team will be announced. The coach of this team will be presented a Studebaker President Eight motor car. The committee plans to make the award an Annual Future Affair of the football season.

Tobacco's at its best . . . in a pipe

MEN'S preference for a man's smoke—the pipe—is plenty positive. But do you know why? We'll tell you.

First, pipe tobacco's different—for instance, Edgeworth. Second, tobacco smolders as it should in a pipe. And third, these mean you get more satisfaction—greater relish of the good old savory burley, soothing fullness of rich smoke.

There's even a fourth reason: you like good company. The pipe-smoking brotherhood is that.

Tobacco's at its best in a pipe. It gets a chance to be itself there—to loosen up as it comes to life, to expand and take in air and glow. Only the choicest leaves get that chance, moreover, for pipes tell the truth about tobacco. Choice leaves, choice blends, and mighty careful handling. Edgeworth comes up through eleven distinct processes before we're willing to pass it on to you.

If you keep on missing all this, that's your fault—for we're waiting to send you your first pipefuls of Edgeworth. See the coupon? Fill it out, get a good pipe and the postman will bring you a neat little glad-to-meet-you packet of good old Edgeworth.

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere—"Ready Rubbed" and "Plug Slice"—15¢ pocket package to pound humidior tin.
