Coach Reid, whose teams have always been feared by Southwestern conference fives, is a worthy successor to Coach "Chuck" Bassett, at present coach of the Porkers. He piloted a team to a T. I. A. A. championship in 1925-26, losing only 2 of 14 games. In '26-'27 his team won 13 and dropped two games but were nosed out in the finals by the West Texas Teachers. Last year his quintet won seven and lost five. He will be assisted by "Red" Petty, star Aggie forward and Captain of the Aggie five of last year.

himself with third and second place in the two trial runs.

"Warhorse" Shoemaker, captain, again is running his steady mile eating pace. J. B. Michael, letterman on last year's champion team is running about seventh.

The other places have resulted in a merry battle all year. So far Yale Griffis, hard-working squadman for the last two years has at last come into his own and seems to be the best bet. Smith and Hahn, freshman hill and dalers of last year, will round out the required seven.

The Aggies are credited with having a fine chance to win the Southwestern Conference championship in this event for the third straight year. Texas defeated Rice, even though Rice is reputed to have a "headsup" team and Texas a poor one.

Last year the Aggies wolloped Texas 23-32 on the Steer course; won 18-45 the year before; beat them 33-43 in '26; 26-31 in 1925; and won 25-32 in '24. During this period the Aggies have won three championships while Texas has copped but one.

Let's go down to Kyle Field and help this bunch of Aggie fighters lick Texas. Just a little encouragement will help these boys put out just a little more. It takes about three months to prepare for only one meet and when they get no support at all, it is mighty discouraging. Be at Kyle Field Friday.

Iowa is happy now since the Carnegie report gives only Illinois and Chicago of the Big Ten clean records.
