SAY BO DIDJA?
 Say, Bo, didja ever go to summer
 Camp so far away from HOME
 It kinda maja blue
 And didja get all dreary like,
 Dreamy and unnoticing, in a daze,
 And did your girl friends
 Call you "Dream Daddy"
 Right out in public
 Where everybody could hear
 And did all the gang
 Razz you,
 And then, Bo, didja go
 See one of those Girl Friends,
 One you called that

SWEET THING,
 And did you notice she didn't
 Use that hated nickname any more
 And didja begin to think she really Cared and when you left did she
 Give you a record all wrapped up
 In paper and when you reached
 The barracks, Bo, didja, call
 All the gang together
 To play it for them
 And then, Bo didja, find the record
 Was called "DREAM DADDY"
 Say bo, didja?
 CURTIS ARTHUR did.

with the Bears, they can still win the championship by defeating the Mustangs—which is far from an easy assignment. T. C. U. still remains one of the undefeated and untied major football teams of the United States.

We have not seen Koch of the Baylor crew play, but if he is any better than Chuch Richter he is welcome to an All-American berth. Richter should easily receive the mythical berth, but he is not only on a losing club, but has no newspaper to laude him. One half of the recognition given the scrapping Bush Jones of the Owl tribe would give Richter the mention. Many scribes rely on accounts of other sports writers for their predictions, but if they could only watch this Aggie guard's play for an hour, he would get the position in a lope.

Brooks Conover is fast becoming the outstanding kicker of the conference. He has an average of 48 yards for every one of his 29 punts and three of the games have been played in driving rains which makes his record more amazing.
