"ROOKIES" JOIN THE NAVY

The screen's funniest comedians, Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, in "All at Sea" mark the height of the entertainment features of the week, according to M. L. Cashion, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Dane and Arthur put the "Big" in the "Big Parade" and the "Rook" into the "Rookies"—but not until the Rookies join the navy in "All at Sea" did they reach the peak of their career.

The show is scheduled for Friday night, November 22, and the funds derived will be used in furthering debating at A. and M., and to send teams out into the state to prove that A. and M. students are actually able to reason.

Join the Navy—see the world—join the corps at the Assembly Hall, Friday night and see "All at Sea." The comedy hit of the season.

CHOOSE your pipes as you do your hats—try 'em on. See how they look.

How a pipe feels is your worry—but how a pipe looks is a matter of community concern. A bulldog pipe in a greyhound face would sear the souls of one's remotest associates. One owes one's duty . . .

The tobacco, now, is your personal business entirely. Take no man's preference—find your own.

Here's Edgeworth, a good old burley graduated with the Class of '04. Like to meet Edgeworth at our expense? See the coupon? Fill it out, and soon thereafter the postman will bring you—these magic mails!—a neat little glad-to-meet-you packet of the real, the genuine, the good, the unchanging Edgeworth . . . Don't mention it! The trick is you'll be buying Edgeworth later!

EDGEWORTH

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere—"Ready Rubbed" or "Plug Slice"—15¢ pocket package to pound humidior tin.

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va.

I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe.

(Witness my seal)

(and my seat of learning)

(and my postoffice and state)

Now let the Edgeworth come!
