

BAT SELECTION

(Continued from Page 6)

of the scribes would place him on their selections, but now—'tis different. Koch receives the other place. Rose and Schoonover, by their consistent play during the whole season deserve the two wing positions. Pinky Alsabrook, by his sterling play last Thursday, worked his way to a runner-up position and in our minds is as good as Rose—much better in the Texas tilt. Burnett is the outstanding center, with Adkins running him a close race for the pivot position. Brown of the Bellmen is outstanding, but these two men have a slight edge on him.

Brumbelow and Hammon are outstanding at the tackle posts, while Sanders and Jones are ranked with the top-notchers. Moulden gave a good account of himself in all the games, and should be hanging on the top ring next season.

Grubbs is the only quarterback in the conference so he gets that post. We don't believe a much stronger backfield can be built without MILLS, Leland, and Shelley Wilson and Mason are good—but not good enough for the first team. Miller, one of the Conference' leading scorers justly gets a half position. We give Floyd the other full back position because he is the best defensive man in the conference and can run interference to perfection.

Everybody has their own selections and this is just one of many—so take your choice.

Below is the selection of another Battalion scribe:

Extry! Joe Goose, widely known sports writer of the Battalion staff, will join the ranks of the other dumbbells and pick an all-conference team. Please refrain from tossing the aged chicken fruit and useless vegetables.

Here goes:

Ends: Rose (Texas) and Schoonover (Arkansas); Tackles, Brumbelow (T. C. U.) and Hammon (S. M. U.); Guards, Richter (Aggies) and Koch (Baylor); Center, Burnett (Texas); Quarter, Grubbs, (T. C. U.); Left Half, Mills (Aggies) and Miller (Arkansas); Right Half, Wilson, (Baylor) and Leland (T. C. U.); fullback, Shelley (Texas).

There are a few more that could be easily placed on that team, Uptmoor, gigantic line ramming ace of the Arkansas Razorbacks, is a star of the first calibre, as is Nona Rees, Texas; Kattman (S. M. U.), Mason (S. M. U.); Paradeaux (Baylor); Powell (S. M. U.); Jones (Rice); Adkins (T. C. U.); Brown (Texas); and Long (S. M. U.).

Take it or leave it.

STADIUM DEDICATED

(Continued from Page 6)

Playing his last game in a Maroon uniform, Connie rose to the heights of brilliancy with his sparkling end runs and fine defensive work in breaking up passes. It was Conover who grabbed a pass from Alsabrook and ran 20 yards unmolested to give us our second touchdown and a surer margin of victory. It was also Conover who raced 45 yards for a touchdown against the whole Texas defense, only to be called back 20 yards when the referee claimed he had stepped out of bounds. On another occasion he tripped through the Steers for a 35-yard run, eluded seven would be Steer tacklers, who hit him and bounced off. The now famed lateral pass from Mills to Conover worked throughout the game for nice gains.

Pinky Alsabrook also played a wonderful game, snatching passes at all angles for substantial gains. He accounted for the first touchdown when he snared a pass from Mills and fought his way over the goal line with Longhorns crowding him from all angles. He overshadowed the famous Big Un Rose in his work at end.

Jelly Woodman, a hard driving substitute back, worked like all get the at the fullback post after relieving Bull Floyd. He plunged the line for numerous gains and blocked and tackled in sensational fashion.

He will be one of the best next season.

The whole line played a whale of a game. Charley Richter, the Ags great guard, covered himself with glory in his final game for the Aggies. He was tearing through the Steer forward wall for gains consistently, busting up plays and making tackles. Joe Brown and Jack Christian, were also causes for no gains in the center of the line.

Little Hebe Dorsey, also playing his last game, entered the game at a back post and showed his usual good form. He is a real loss to the Aggie backfield.

There is no use to go on with individual praises, for the whole team was in there scrapping. This fact can be evidenced by the way the famed Dexter Shelley, Texas' all-time fullback, was stopped dead in his tracks.

BASKETBALL

(Continued from Page 6)

at center the Aggies boast of two fine cagers that can be depended on. Brown played center a considerable part of the time last season and should be playing his best this year. Hoke did not come up to the expectations of Aggie cage followers last season, but from the stuff he has been showing in practice will strut his stuff this year as he did in 1926 when he played with Heights in the state basketball tournament staged here.

The Aggies are weak at the forward positions and the shoes of Petty, Davis, and Webster will be hard to fill. Beard, Carpenter, and Keith were crack freshman forwards and may get the call for the varsity positions.

The following is the complete basketball schedule for this season. Keep it where you can see it and get behind the Reidmen—you know the trouble Bell had in getting started, this popular new Aggie mentor will experience the same thing and we must help him.

December 15th-16th—Sam Houston Normal at College.

January 6th-7th—Centenary College at College Station.

January 17th-18th—Sam Houston Normal at Huntsville.

January 21st—Rice Institute at Houston.

January 24th—Texas Christian University at College.

January 31st—Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.

February 1st—Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

February 8th—Rice Institute at College.

February 14th—University of Texas at Austin.

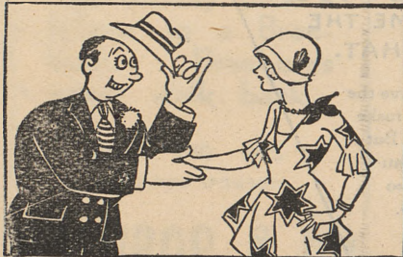

February 21st—Arkansas University at College.

February 22nd—Arkansas University at College.

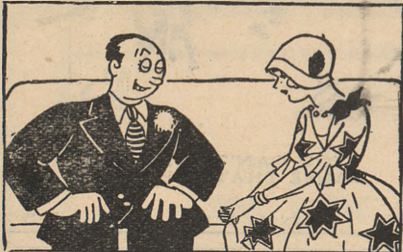

March 1st—University of Texas at College.

The "odd" year myth still stands—D. X. won his sixth grid championship in twelve years when the Nebraska Cornhuskers took the Big Six title for the second consecutive time.

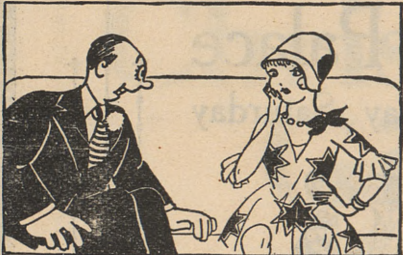

Happy Moments

When you're introduced to just about the most gorgeous girl you ever laid eyes on—

And she tells you she ADORES a man who dresses with careful good taste—

And when she remarks how UNUSUALLY good-looking your Florsheim shoes are—say—that's a happy moment you never WILL forget!

There's a certain assurance about the smart style of Florsheim Shoes which somehow is passed on to the man who wears them—wherever he goes. And maybe Florsheim good looks alone won't win a girl's favor, but from what we've been told—they certainly do help!

T. K. LAWRENCE
INC.

Outfitters For Young Men and Men Who Stay Young

THE X-MAS HOLIDAYS

WILL SOON BE HERE!

December 19 and Homebound!

We will be glad to mail X-mas gifts to your friends.

Box Candies

Box Cigars—half size

X-mas Cigarettes

Cigarette Lighters

Pipes—100 varieties

Half and Pound Tobaccos

Tobacco Pouches

Cigarette Holders

CASEY'S CONFECTIONERY

IN THE "Y"