"So? And what's wrong with my tone, my haughty beauty?" barked Sir Mortimer.

"Everything possible," she answered him unflinchingly.

BARNYARD DANCE

and being a corps dance Saturday night.

As has been the custom in the past, prizes will be awarded to the most winsome country maiden and to the most mossy-backed Rube attending the rustic ruckus Friday night. The prizes to be awarded this year will outstrip by far prizes given heretofore, according to Hop Reynolds, social secretary of the senior class.

Music at both dances will be furnished by the Aggieland orchestra whose sensuous syncopation and reeling rhythm waxed wantonly warm in their most recent appearances. The Aggieland agonizers expect to attain the pinnacle of their syncopating success in this week's program.

The barnyard brawl will border on the edge of a marathon, beginning at nine with "Home, Sweet Home" or "Tip-Toe Through the Tulips With Me," at two in the morning. Script will be $1.50 to everyone; no admittance by free passes. The usual one

Cotton Marketing Committee Chosen

With Dr. T. O. Walton, president of the College, as chairman, a committee for the investigation of the possibilities which a cotton marketing board might have in Texas was appointed in Austin last week. The appointment of the committee was provided for in the Kapper-Walston act enacted by the Texas Legislature.

The proceedings of the committee will be filed with the Federal Farm Board and upon the approval of their decisions steps will be taken to organize in Texas an associated market which will afford the sale and distribution of 100,000 bales of cotton through a central market agency. Other than this, the purposes of the board are not known, but a helping of the present cotton situation in Texas is the ultimate and only aim dollar tithe will be required for the corps dance.

and many procedures are expected.

Besides Dr. Walton, the members of the committee appointed last week are Lawrence Westbrook, Waco; Harry Williams, Dallas; Dean A. H. Leidigh of the Texas School of Technology, and Director O. B. Martin of the Extension Service at the A. and M. College of Texas.

Carl Williams, a member of the cotton board, is sitting with the committee to approve or disapprove their actions.

M. E. Department Noteworthy

The local student branch of the A. S. M. E. with V. M. Faires as its sponsor or guidon has recently been in correspondence with the Houston branch with reference to a meeting of representatives of the two branches to debate on a technical question of a very important issue at present. At the most recent meeting of the local chapter it was decided that full membership cooperation be given the joint meeting and arrangements for it. Such an arrangement will be advantageous in a two-fold way to all members of the two A. S. M. E. chapters concerned.

It is learned at this comparatively late date that Professor J. C. Cheatham of the M. E. department motored to Richmond, Va., during the Christmas holidays and brought back with him a life companion. Due to snow throughout the country, he did not see the ground for ten days after leaving College Station. In past generations, Mr. Cheatham, being educated as we are, fail to fathom as our fore-fathers and therefore extend to you our sincerest sympathy in this and succeeding hours of gloom.

In 1883 the students were allowed 250 "Rams" for the year and there wasn't any such animal as "The Sons of Rest?"
