to hold their positions if they do not beat them out of them. Franklin looked mighty good in the box last year, but it is hardly likely that he will be able to replace the veteran Lackey.

First base is probably the Aggies' weakest spot, although "Lefty" Martin, who played the intial sack a part of the time last year, is back. Hoke will also be available. There were no first rate first basemen on the fish squad and Higginbotham will have to develop Martin or someone else.

The following are those that have indicated their intentions of answering the first call: Catchers: Lackey, Franklin and Golasinski; pitchers: Wendt, Mills, Hunter, Gorman, Lagow, and Colson; first basemen: Martin and Hoke; second basemen: Pampell, Russel and Davis; short-stop: Johns, Carpenter, Barron; third-base: Keith, Voelkel, Cody, Weston; field: Dansby, Crozier, Bell, Conover, Veltman.

SALZBURG JUBILEE FESTIVAL

Max Reinhardt, of "The Miracle" fame in this country, will be the most important figure in the staging of world-famous dramas in the Reinhardt and Mozart Festivals, which will take place in Salzburg, Austria, beginning the last week in

OVER THE EXCHANGE STORE

July and continuing until the end of August, 1930, it was announced today by Kommerzialrat Georg Jung, proprietor of the Grand Hotel de l' Europe, in Salzburg, Austria, who is visiting the United State in the interest of this event.

Appearing under Mr. Reinhardt's direction will be such figures, by now noted in America, as Alexander Moissi, Emil Jannings, and Werner Kraus and many others. The great Melba, now well advanced in age, and retired, will be one of the features. These Festivals, which have now become an annual feature in Salzburg, regularly draw a great attendance of Americans. It is expected that this year's, which is by far the most ambitious of these events so far, will prove even more attractive than the others.

SPECIAL SHOWS GIVEN MID-TERM

Following out its policy to entertain the students with good shows whenever possible, the Y. M. C. A. has announced shows for every night during mid-term.

"The Rescue" has been chosen for Thursday night, starring Ronald Coleman. Friday night Bessie Love and Raymond Hacket with all star support will play in "The Girl in the Show;" while an insight into West Point army life will be embodied in Saturday's show, "The Salute" with George O'Brien and Helen Chandler.

Coupon number one in the new book will be good for Saturday's show.
