

MAYO SPEAKS AT SOCIETY MEETING

Subject of Paper Delivered "The Temper in Modern Literature."

Prof. Thomas F. Mayo delivered a paper on "The Temper in Modern Literature" before the Scholarship Honor Society at the regular meeting held in the "Y" parlor last Thursday night. Much interest was aroused among the fifty-five members present. The topic was somewhat of a new departure from the usual engineering and technical subjects which occupy the minds of the majority of members. The Society expects to have other members of the faculty to present papers in the future.
