evened by the sound beating the First Artillery handed the Second Infantry. Buckman, O'Dowd, Rowley and Caswell, with Hewit going over for three touchdowns were outstanding for the Artillery team. Watson, Stone, and Blodgett were the Infantry's mainstays.

The highly touted Cavalry outfit caught it on the chin again when the first Infantry walloped them by a 6-0 count. Snurr, Wright, Nolan, and Ellis were outstanding for the Infantrymen while Harlan and Bryant took the Cavalry honors.

NEW COURSES

Hygiene, as listed above. The other courses in Physiol Education will be given in the Junior and Senior years, where ample provision for electives has also been made.

Mr. W. L. Penberthy of the Department of Physical Education will have immediate charge of the work, and he will be assisted by other members of the Department, all of whom are well qualified in this important field.

Detailed information regarding the major in Physical Education may be secured from Mr. Penberthy or from Dean Charles E. Friley.

The much-sung cricket, classical music maker of the traditional hearth, has been pronounced a pest by the United States Bureau of Entomology. When hungry the insects eat clothes and book-bindings and other articles, the specialists have found. The Bureau calls their music "noisy chirping."

All contributions mailed to the editor of the Battalion will be given due consideration and greatly appreciated.

Pipes save no
midnight oil

IF PIPES made the man, anybody at all could rise in the world just by smoking a few pounds of Edgeworth. But pipes do not make the man.

Men make the pipe—most men do. Somewhat depends on the individual, more on the pipe, and the tobacco is most important of all. Things must be congenial.

Edgeworth is a congenial tobacco, cool, slow-burning, fully flavored. Edgeworth has poise, kindly good nature, real tobacco personality—Edgeworth welcomes new friends. Many a good man has been pledged to pipes by Edgeworth alone.

Like to meet Edgeworth? Just ask with the coupon—and the postman will bring your first few pipefuls of the genuine, three years seasoned if it's a day. Our treat, if you please.

Others have found Edgeworth and quit their discontent.

So may it be with you!

EDGEWORTH

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere—"Ready Rubbed" or "Plug Slice"—15¢ pocket package to pound humidifier tin.

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va.

I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe.

(and my seat of learning)

(and my postoffice and state)

Now let the Edgeworth come!
