duty is looks mighty slim.

At catcher, Lackey probably has the most secure position because of his experience, but should one of the sophomores turn out to be a conference slugger, Lackey might have to give way to the new comers.

On the mound the Aggies are as strong as any club in the conference with Captain Pete Wendt and Tommie Mills ready for duty. Then "Lefty" Hunter is going good and should win several games. Wendt is also a wrong hander. The remaining men on the staff are right handers and are showing lots of form and stuff.

 FAKED "SISTER" WARMLY

Open arms and kisses greeted a

Phi Kap "rushing papa" last night when dressed in a fur coat and green hat, he was received as a pledge with sisterly affection by many sororities who were fooled by his make-up.

At the Alpha Phi house the wolf in sheeps' clothing was admitted to the fireside where his true identity was discovered when he attempted to warm his unusually large hands.

His wits gained his admittance to the Gamma Phi house, but not for long, screams drove him from the porch of the Theta house; the Alpha O's were a little more hospitable, but the Kappas and Phi Phis locked the door in his face.

He got perhaps his warmest reception at the Chi Omega house, but in his hurry to leave he dropped a dainty silk handkerchief, which is

FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL SPRING TRAINING ON WAY

Forty men reported to Coaches Bell, Holmes and Petty for the initial football practice Monday and all were equipped with uniforms. Many more were expected to report Tuesday and Wednesday. As usually is the case fundamentals will be the chief drill during the first few days with a good measure of calisthenics thrown in to loosen the muscles. The majority of the lettermen and squadmen are not reporting because of duty with other teams.

Coach Reid has about thirty or forty men working out in basketball at the present, although he has no definite check. Only fundamentals are being taken up and every man reporting is being given a thorough try. Several prospects have already been found and will be called out for the squad next year providing improvement continues. Anyone can report and freshmen are especially urged to see Coach Reid concerning the practice. Beard, a letterman, and Fix, a squadman, are assisting Reid with the many promising cagemen.
