Dr. Patterson will Lecture April 24

Columbia University Professor of English Will Speak Here Auspices English Department.

Dr. F. A. Patterson of the department of Comparative Literature in Columbia University is announced by the English department here for appearance in a public lecture at A. and M. at the Assembly Hall on April 24th.

The title, or subject, of Dr. Patterson's talk will be "Milton, the First Modern." In this the speaker will introduce the poet Milton in modern dress.

Dr. Patterson is one of the most eminent scholars in seventeenth century literature and has edited a monumental edition of Milton. His critical writings on Milton and Bunyan are usually regarded as final.

Dr. Patterson is one of the most distinguished scholars ever to speak on the campus and an interesting talk is assured to all who care to attend. There will be no charge for the lecture, expenses being defrayed by the committee of public lectures and entertainments of A. and M.

GEORGIA TECH WILL HAVE AIR SCHOOL

Three hundred thousand dollars has been given by the Daniel Guggenheim Foundation for the Promotion of Aeronautics, to the Georgia Institute of Technology here for the establishment of an aeronautical engineering school, to be a center for such work in the South.

Some time ago $350,000 was given by the fund to the California Institute of Technology, which was the largest single donation made by the Guggenheim fund.
