Announcement has been made from the commandant's office that classified seniors will be eligible to make the trip to Lincoln, Saturday, October 4, for the A&M-Nebraska football game.

Pullman fare will be $3.00 the round trip, and the car may be used as sleeping quarters for the occupants while in Lincoln. The round trip railroad fare will be $28.84 from College Station.

Those desiring to take advantage of these low rates should get in touch with either Robt. L. Herbert or Edwin Moore. Bulletins with detailed information as to train schedules, route, and ticket arrangements may be secured from Herbert or Moore.

the Longhorn intends to institute numerous changes. We can effectively bring these changes about if we have the understanding and support of the entire student body. Suggestions and questions will be welcomed, though in the way of questions, we could not impart information that would scoop the Longhorn. However, questions will still be in order and we will do our best to impart an understanding of what we are trying to do without giving the whole show away.

"The Aggieland Studio is now taking both senior class pictures and senior military section pictures. If the seniors will have their pictures made before October 4, it will help the photographer get these pictures completed in time to give the junior section pictures the same time consideration they merit. It will help us to take advantage of engraving discounts.

"In the future all Longhorn notices will appear in The Daily Bulletin and they will be read in the mess hall. These are the only avenues through which we can reach the student body.

"The military section will involve one of the changes, and we think this will be welcomed. Full instructions are appearing in The Bulletin. The beauty section constitutes still another change. We think this will also be appreciated. Sample pictures with explicit instructions on the back for the correct procedure may be had at the Longhorn office in the new library.
