

AMONG THOSE PLAYING LAST GAME

WOODMAN

EMMONS

VAN ZANDT

PHILLIPS

WINGMAN

MALONE

Malone's uncanny ability to snatch passes right out of the arms of his opponents is expected to cause him to play a prominent part in the Turkey Day tilt.

Directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce are reported to be planning to bring a million dollar suit against publishers of geographies making "scandalously and damagingly untrue descriptions of West Texas territory."

A Word From Freddie

"The Eyes of Texas ARE Upon You"—tomorrow we will be a part of a team noted for the assistance it receives from its leather lunged student body in the stadium. The whole Southwest will watch our every move. We will be more than a mere yelling squad—we will be a twelfth man, which, because of its reputation will be watched as closely as any of the other eleven players.

From the time we get off of the train in Austin, until the game is over, let this be in the mind of every student: We are going there with one purpose,—to WIN! One false move may turn a victory into defeat, so let us watch carefully that none of us err. And when the last note of taps has rung out over the stadium at the end of the game, may it have been played so well, may we have yelled so loudly, and fought so earnestly, that, win or lose,—"There Shall Be No Regrets."

STARTING GUARDS

LORD

CHRISTIAN

First roommate—They say that two people who associate with each other a great deal grow to look alike.

Second Sponger—Then I begin to look for another room tomorrow.

Pi Phi—Will you give us some money to help the Old Ladies Home?
Beta—Hell, are they out again?

How does Caroline kiss?
Have you ever tried a tuba?

... the FAVORITE pipe tobacco of college men is—

WHEREVER college men pause to load their pipes you'll see the familiar blue tin of Edgeworth!

At California, at Yale, at Williams and Cornell . . . in America's leading colleges and universities you will find Edgeworth the favorite smoking tobacco of the college man.

College men everywhere respond to the appeal of pipes—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth. Be guided by their choice. Try Edgeworth yourself. Taste its rich natural savor that is enhanced immeasurably by Edgeworth's distinctive eleventh process.

You will find Edgeworth at your nearest tobacco shop—15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.
