1—Fair, 2—Good, 3—Excellent.

"Scandal Sheet," is George Bancroft's greatest picture. It is "wuxtra extra," with action, in typical Bancroft fashion. The story is of a newspaper editor, who knows plenty, and prints it, even though it wrecks his own happiness. The support cast is excellent, with Kay Francis and Clive Brook.—2.

Showing at the Queen in Bryan, "Girls Demand Excitement," an entertaining bit of comedy and action.—2. and John Hack Brown, with Eleanor Boardman, in "The Great Meadow," a stirring and exciting yarn of pioneering.—2.

Now we have the treat of all treats, Will Rogers in "A Connecticut Yankee," adapted from Mark Twain's famous story. Although a few liberties have been taken with the book, even Twain wouldn't object. Everyone knows the delicious and imaginative story, and everyone knows the natural humor of Will Rogers, an unbeatable combination. Myrna Loy, is the alluring, slinky, exotic, sensuous vamp, Morgan Le Fay. With the sinuous Myrna, in the support cast, are William Farnum, Maureen O'Sullivan, and Frank Albertson, and a thousand knights in coats of mail and bantam autos, armed with machine guns.—3.

"New Moon," gives pleasing music of the drama, with two of the greatest screen voices, Lawrence Tibbett and Grace Moore. This story of the Russian army, combines color, drama, and beauty. The support cast in this Broadway hit, are Adolphe Menjou, and Roland Young.—2.

"Beau Ideal," is the sequel to the story "Beau Geste." The story is a deathless one of two men who loved the same girl, and the girl who loved both of them. The setting is in the burning desert, at war with savage hordes of Arabs. Loretta Young, Ralph Forbes, and Irene Rich, lead the cast.—2.

Lawrence Tibbett appears in a new picture, "The Southerner." His new role is that of a singing hobo on the open road. The picture differs from all his preceding ones, in its theme and interest. The three hoboes in the cast are Lawrence Tibbett, Ukelele Ike, and Roland Young. Esther Ralston, is also in the support cast of this charming comedy.—3.
