

Pres. East Texas C. Of C. Addresses Engrs. & Sciences

Dr. N. G. Word, president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, spoke on Public Health at a joint banquet of the junior members of the school or arts and sciences and the school of engineering Tuesday night. His talk stressed the importance of caring for your own personal health as a means of controlling the spread of contagious diseases, and with the use of slides which illustrated very graphically his points, he showed the

Last Of Longhorns Distributed Friday

Distribution of the new Longhorn has been discontinued until Friday when 300 more copies of the book are expected to arrive from the Rein Printing Company in Houston. Copies of the de luxe edition also will be given out at this time, Ed Moore, editor-in-chief of the yearbook stated Monday. The annual first was released to the cadet corps Sunday morning and by Monday night over 2,000 copies had been distributed. The Battalion offices were used to facilitate the distribution, but after Monday all remaining copies were removed to the regular Longhorn office in the new Library building. The first shipment of the annual reached the campus Friday by truck, but the new allotment will be shipped by freight.

IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.
