Judging, second in Swine Judging fifth in Sheep Judging, and fourth in Horse Judging.

Ranson High
For individual honors, L. C. Ranson, Lamesa, was high man on the Aggie Team, winning fifth place among all contestants in Hog Judging; H. F. Kothman, Mason, was high man in Cattle Judging among all contestants, and placed third in Swine Judging and fifth in Sheep Judging; and C. M. Caraway, Jr., De Leon, placed sixth in Cattle Judging.

Before entering the International Contest in Chicago, the Team went to Wichita, Kansas, where they tied for first place in the cattle Judging Contest and won fourth place in the Hog Judging Contest at the National Livestock Forum, and to Kansas City, where they won first in the Cattle Judging Contest and second in the Horse Judging at the American Royal Livestock Exposition. C. M. Caraway, Jr., De Leon, was high man on the Aggie Team at Wichita, and R. J. Von Roeder, Yorktown, was high man at Kansas City.

Besides entering the various contests the team visited several northern universities including Purdue University and the University of Illinois, and other places of interest. The team is expected to return to A and M in a few days.

Football Players On Squad

With captain Charlie Beard, Ft. Worth and Lester "Squawk" Veltman, a San Antonio product; at the guard positions; Clarence "Bull" Marcum, Estelline; and Joe Moody, Corpus Christi; at forward and a raft of reserves who have displayed real ability in early scrimmages, Coach Reid's worries will be lightened considerably in every post except that of center. Those included in the list of likely prospects as capable reserves are Armand Doche, guard from Amarillo; Joe Miller, Princeton, forward; and C. G. King, a "Cowtown" guard. All of these men are credited with one year's experience on the varsity squad.

Three Sophomores
And added to the list of forwards and guards are three more sophomores who will leave the gridiron for the hardwoods. They are Clifford "Frenchy" Domingue, Port Arthur; and Ted Spencer, Gilmer; both forwards; and "Pete" Robertson, a guard from Austin. Domingue and Robertson are numbermen from last year.

The remainder of the squad of more than twenty is composed of squadmen and Intramural stars of last season.

At the present time the Aggie cage schedule calls for three games before the Christmas holidays, and differing from preceding years, no trip has been planned for the holidays. The complete schedule is as follows:

of play the "thin red line of Aggieland" staved off the attacks of a heavier Texas forward wall, and blocked to perfection to allow the Aggie backs to chalk up gain after gain. Captain Carl Moulden, although hampered by injuries, and the consistent Maggie Magrill ended their days of college football fighting as they have fought from the beginning, and their work brought nothing but words of praise from those who sat shivering in the stands.

Koy And Stafford Star

Only the defensive work of Koy and Stafford prevented a larger score from being run up against the Texas team. The power-house plunges of Koy marked him as the outstanding full back in the conference, while Harrison Stafford appeared from nowhere to penetrate the Aggie interference singlehanded and pull down the ball-toters.

The Longhorns scored early after Graves' punt had been blocked, when they started a drive that stopped only after Koy crossed the Aggie goal line standing up. But Blanton, the boy whose toe defeated Oklahoma and always a consistent kicker, failed to annex the extra point which was the difference in victory and defeat.

Aston Hurt

On the next play Aston, in returning the kick-off was injured and was carried from the field unconscious. Chances for a victory looked very slim, but Ted Spencer, a sophomore from Gilmer, stepped into the limelight as his hard drives pierced the heavy Texas line and his well placed punts put the Steers deep in their own territory. And it was very soon after his entrance into the game that the tide of battle turned.

The first long drive ended when a pass from Spencer to Murray was intercepted by Koy. Koy punted after no appreciable gains, and in a series of drives "Frenchy" took the ball over standing up. He then took his place on the ten yard line and won the game with a well placed kick that sent the ball squarely between the uprights.

Good Defense

A defense that brought praise from friend and foe alike marked the Texas stand in the second half. On half a dozen times the Maroon and White of Aggieland pushed and squirmed its way inside the Texas 10 yard line only to be stopped by an orange wall.

Are they as good as when the ruffles came down to the ankles?

GOOD? . . . You bet they are! Maybe the girls are even better. Anyhow, cigarettes are a whole lot better. No doubt about that.

They used to be made by hand—
Now it's machines; no hand but yours ever touches them.

They used to be packed in expensive, highfalutin' cardboard boxes—
Now the quality is in the cigarettes.

The U. S. Revenue Tax used to be a penny a package of twenty—
Now it's six cents a package of twenty.

Tobacco used to be dried by air—
Now Liggett & Myers alone has thirty-five drying machines of the latest type, with a daily capacity of over 2,000,000 pounds—and over four miles of warehouses for tobacco storage.

BETTER—they're miles better! Everything used in the manufacture of Chesterfield cigarettes is the best that money can buy or that Science knows about.

CHESTERFIELD TOBACCOS—both Turkish and Domestic—are mild and ripe, the best that money can buy.

AND THE WAY Chesterfield tobaccos are blended and cross-blended is like making a new and better-tasting kind of tobacco, with greater smoothness, more mildness and a more pleasing aroma—a fragrance and flavor not to be found in any other cigarette.

CHESTERFIELD gives you the benefit of all the world knows about the production of better cigarettes. Nobody smokes a better cigarette than Chesterfield.
