SHOW TALE

By Phillip John

Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Palace—"Frankenstein."

Saturday preview only—Palace—"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Saturday noon—Assembly Hall—"Private Lives."

Sunday, Monday—Palace—"High Pressure."

Wednesday—Assembly Hall—"Indiscreet."

Saturday night—Assembly Hall—"Lovely Wives."

Tuesday, Wednesday—Palace—"Lovers Courageous."

"Frankenstein," the man who made a monster, undoubtedly gives to the pictures one of its greatest thrillers. Although the actual murder scenes have been cut out, weak hearts have to be brave to sit through the picture. The picture is amazing, fascinating, and well done with an excellent cast; Colin Clive as Frankenstein, Mae Clarke, John Boles, Boris Karloff as the monster, Frederic Kerr, and Edward Van Sloan. Don't miss this picture if you want some real screen thrills.

For the preview only, and returning at some later date, is "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The new production of the old story is an excellent one, and a real thriller. The direction and cast are perfect. The best feature of the picture is the clever change made from man to monster, before your eyes. You should enjoy every minute of the show as unparalleled entertainment. Frederic March as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Miriam Hopkins, and Rose Hobart lead the cast.

"Lonely Wives," is a brilliant comedy that squares the family circle. It is based on a successful stage farce by Al Woods. This story of modern morals has an excellent cast, led by Edward Everett Horton, and supported by Laura La Plante, Esther Ralston, and Patsy Ruth Miller.

"Private Lives" is one of the cleverest of Montgomery's pictures. The story and conversation is fast and smart, and show Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery at their best.

"Lovers Courageous" is Robert Montgomery's latest picture and the story of a leap year romance, and a girl who proposed to the man of her heart. It is as delightful as all of Montgomery's pictures, and now he has a new support cast with Madge Evans and Roland Young. Featured with the picture is a short with the Boswell sisters in a few reels of singing that should be very enjoyable.

"High Pressure" is William Powell's first attempt at comedy, and a successful one too. If you like the smooth Powell, you'll enjoy him in this picture.

Gloria Swanson is again thrust into movie limelight in her picture "Indiscreet." The story is a mirror of the trials of moderns in seeking romance. Ben Lyon, Barbara Kent, and Arthur Lake lead the support cast.

Doing business without advertising is like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does. J. Anon.

"Give me Lucky Strike every time"

THEY'RE DOTTY ABOUT DOTTY

Dorothy Mackaill's great-great something-or-other was Bobby Burns, the famous Scotch poet, and she's as popular in Hollywood as golf—"nother Scotch import. Her favorite pet is a Brazilian monkey. You see the monk in the new FIRST NATIONAL PICTURE, "SAFE IN HELL." Dorothy has smoked LUCKIES for six years, and not a cent was paid for her statement, so we're making a sweeping bow and saying, "Thanks, Dorothy Mackaill."

"My throat is all important to me. No harsh irritants for yours truly. Give me LUCKY STRIKE every time. And pat yourself on the back for your new Cellophane wrapper with that tab which makes the package so easy to open."
